MELISSA

blue/grey:

This pattern is "Mod Dash" by Sew Kind of Wonderful. I purchased the fabric up in Fresno when I visited Donna

Teals and Pinwheels:
This is the same block from our January Block
of the Month,
but I made the strips wider. I purchased the fabric from Candy's, 6
colors from the same collection

MELISSA

purple/green/cream:
This pattern is
"Dragon Glass" by Sew Kind of Wonderful - it's an upside down
clamshell quilt,
which looks a little like dragon scales. I used the first layer cake I ever
purchased, which has been sitting on my shelf for years.

Teal & white:
This pattern is
"Bean Counter's
Star" by Marti
Mitchell. I saw this quilt hanging in a shop in Virginia a few years ago, and was mesmerized
by the secondary
circles, so bought the pattern. I finally got around to making the quilt.

JOAN ANDERSON

I got a pattern for a table runner from Michelle. It was great fun to make. I bought a pattern for an gnomes wall hanging. LOTS of work but fun

“Part 2”

PENNY LAWRENCE

Made these with fabric from an opportunity basket that I won. The table runner is a Juju embroidery design that I had to enlarge with my software. The quilting was done in a hoop.

PENNY LAWRENCE

This wall hanging was paper pieced with free motion leaves in the borders. The pattern was included in the raffle.
