

SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Fall has begun!! Leaves are starting to fall from my neighbor's BIG Sycamore tree and making a huge mess in my yard! But it is all good...the days will become cooler and we will be looking for all those quilts we have been working on this very hot summer. Now is the time to finish them up.

We had a great game night. Quilter's Bingo and Quilter's Strip Poker were played. Just Bunts mini cakes and fat quarter stacks were prizes for bingo. Jean Carter was the winner of the Strip Poker game and won a $25 gift card to Joann's, a mini Bunt cake and the opportunity to chair game night next year!! Can't wait to see what she and her group do next year! We play Strip Poker with 2 ½" strips of fabric that was cut from our donations from Candy's Quilt Shop. The fabric was then donated back to community service. Approximately 600 plus strips are now available for more project kits for community service. A big thanks to Candy's for making it all possible.

We have a great guild. What makes it great are the members! Thanks for making my job easier by stepping up and helping. If now is not the time to hold a position that is OK...help out for a couple of meetings a few hours when the opportunity quilt is on the road to another location, at a workshop, hospitality, community service or ways and means table...make a basket for ways and means or donate quilting supplies, notions etc. Block of the month needs members to sew tops together, quilt or bind the beautiful quilts your blocks are making. An extra hand is always needed and appreciated.

A hardy welcome to new members!!

Thanks again,

Joyce Wilkinson

PROGRAMS

It's time for us to emphasize some handwork – like our foremothers did! This month, we welcome back Lola Newman from Stitchin' by the River to do a trunk show and an embroidery workshop for us using her fascinating Civil War era blackwork patterns. In November, Margarete Heinisch from the Valley Quilt Guild will be here with a trunk show, lecture and workshop on applique techniques. You have to see her work to believe it!

Workshops:

On October 12th, Lola Newman will be helping us improve our embroidery skills using her patterns for Civil War era Blackwork. There are still spots available in this class. Our November 16th workshop will be applique – so, a couple of opportunities to improve your handwork!!

Keep on Quilting!

Sue Bennorth

October Update

Save the Date : June 13, 14, 2020 at Hart Park

Goal: To have 100% membership participation before and during the show

Ways to Participate:

Complete the Challenge Placemat due in November

Complete the Mini Me flag for our banner (We are off to a great start of reaching that goal- we were able to give out 58 Individual Flag instructions and patterns last month. We already have 4 back within the first two weeks!!! Can't wait to see more at the October meeting.)

Start thinking of at Least 5 people who would enjoy the show and to whom you can extend an invitation. TALK It UP!

Start planning on what quilt(s) you are going to display at the show. We really want all our member's work represented.

Join the SCV Quilt Guild FaceBook page

Visit the SCV Quilt Guild Web Page

Donations needed : 10"x14" rectangles or larger of colored felt to back the flags.

To repair a donated crazy quilt I am looking for Robert Talbott Best of Class silk wide ties. It needs to be that specific to keep authentic.

Volunteers needed:

To complete 1/4 of the Quilt Show Quilt (Colorific Quilters Pattern)

To Organize the Door Prize Committee (have the items, just need an organizer)

To Co-ordinate the Silent Auction/Opportunity Baskets

Hope you had a great month of spending time sewing and with friends. See you in October.

Marcia and Doryce

MINI QUILT CHALLENGE FOR THE 2020 QUILT SHOW

Hey, all you fabulous quilters, new and experienced! We, co-chairs Penny and Gabrielle, are beginning the first of two mini-quilt challenges. All entries will be displayed at the 2020 Show. It's not too late to join this first one.

What is a quilt challenge? We tell you the parameters, and you go for it! Now remember, this is a challenge with prizes, PRIZES!, at the end, so do something beautiful. (No new car, sorry...)

The first challenge is a placemat, 14" by 19" raw measurements, that is, before binding (but the binding won't increase the placemat by much). You will choose and use 2 colors only. It must have a binding, no raw edges, and no embellishments (i.e., beading). It is due promptly at the November meeting, and all will be displayed and judged at the December meeting. You may make 1, 2, or a max of 3, but only one award will be given per person. Placemats will be donated to the Senior Center after the 2020 Show (for those who don't mind).

Please join the fun. It doesn't matter how inexperienced you are, just go for it! And what's the second challenge? More info coming soon.

I will be out of town for the October meeting but the display board with a new block pattern will be there and Rhea Fetter will be there helping to collect more of our blocks and to pass out the prize tickets for each block you turn in. Keep up the good work for the kids at Turtle Camp!

Holiday Party

Holiday party update:

Plans for our holiday party are under way. Food is being ordered and guild members will be asked to bring drinks (A-M) and desserts (N-Z). Quilting Pleasures will be here for your holiday shopping.

I'm thinking this year we will try something new with a Pin Cushion Exchange. You can make it or buy one at a boutique or quilt shop. Let your creative juices flow.

I will also be needing some help with decorations, setting up and take down, and clean up. I will have a sign up at the meeting in October.

Thanks and let's get ready to party
