

June/July 2022

SCQVG Show and Share

Sara
Nelson

From class I took on May 28 at Quilty Pleasures

BOM Quilt

This is the completed quilt using January and February's BOM, Grandma Mae's Economy Block. You all did a fantastic job with your blocks and we love it!

- Joan and Darlene

Judy Chaffee

This quilt was made for a great nephew who graduated this year and loves playing baseball. I wanted a baseball fabric that worked for an adult and found the panel on Amazon.

Judy Chaffee

This is my entry in the 2021-2022 Hoffman Challenge. The bodice and skirt were 2 of the possible 5 fabrics to use. The mannequin pattern is from a Riley Blake panel, which I asked permission to use.

It has been thru the first round of judging, a picture, and I am waiting now to see if it will be chosen to be in their traveling show.

Melissa Nilsen

This is a pattern called "Four Corners" that I picked up from Gerry Hogan. It's small, about 23" square. It was my first time doing strip piecing, and I really enjoyed it.

Quilts to the VA

We had a recent trip down to the Cal Vet apartments off Wilshire. What follows are pictures of the bed quilts, large and small lap quilts and wheel chair quilts. There is even one that will hang on someone's wall. Thank you to everyone who contributed to each of these from making blocks, assembly, adding borders, quilting and binding. They are beautiful! I laughed when Pam (our contact) told me that she will not be there when they get handed out because she won't handle disputes over who gets which one!

Some quilts have the same fabric/pattern. There are no duplicates!!!!

Thank you for all the contributions!

- ▶ That's all for tonight

