SANTA CLARITA VALLEY QUILT GUILD

Volume 35 – Issue 10
October 2024

Our mission is to stimulate an interest in quilts, to promote and advance the art of quilt making, to conduct educational programs and services in the design techniques and preservation of quilts and quilt making; and to promote quilting in philanthropic endeavors.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hello Fall!

I can't believe that this is the last newsletter before our fantabulous Quilt Show, "Where Quilts and Friendships Bloom" happening on October 26th at the Bella Vida Senior Center. Kathleen Dolan and her committees have worked feverishly and tirelessly to pull it together. What a spectacular job they have done. THERE IS STILL TIME for you to get involved, and strongly encourage you to sign up at the October meeting to volunteer during the show. New to the Guild? This is a wonderful opportunity to get to know the members as you work side by side AND it gains you free entry into the show. We need members to sign up to work at the various stations (10-12, 12-2, 2-4) and specifics will be at the October meeting. Our strength as a guild is the involvement of its members.

A huge part of the Guild is to provide support to organizations and people in the community. Our speakers for the October meeting will be individuals who will be giving first hand accounts of the impact our works have on the lives of others. Very inspiring.

Thank you to Tina Sammartino and Kendra Geiger who have volunteered to serve on the nomination committee. We always need members to be willing to learn and serve in vital chairman and officer positions.

Thank you to Judy Chaffee who has organized the Scissor Sharpening Man to be at our October meeting. If you signed up at the last meeting, you will be receiving specific instructions on how to present your scissors, and knives for sharpening.

I learned that the official raffle drawing for the Road 2 California Atrium exhibit will be October 2nd, so when I know, you will know. Fingers crossed.

May you have Happy Quilting with Happy Quilters,

Marcia

PROGRAM – COMMUNITY SERVICE NIGHT

Our guild is a force not to be reckoned with as it relates to our dedication to serving our community!

The October meeting will feature speakers from some of the organizations we donate to.

Diane, representing the Senior Center will be in attendance to share the observations the meal delivery drivers experience when they deliver placemats, lap quilts or shawls to recipients of the meal service. Sometimes these gifts are all the seniors receive.

Meghan, from R. I.S.E, Reach-Invest-Supply-Empower is an organization that assists youth aging out of the foster care system will talk about the struggles these youth experience.

The SCV Pregnancy Center will be represented by Luz. We gift each new mother with a bib, burp cloth, receiving blanket and a quilt. Sometimes, these are all the gifts they receive.

We also support Family Promise -- this organization interfaces with churches and other non-profits work to identify families that need assistance in getting back on their feet. They are in supportive housing for three -six months as they update their resumes and skills as well as learning budgeting.

Cal Vets and South California Veterans Association is excited to share how our bed quilts, lap quilts, and clothing protectors encourage our veterans.

Hope to see you there,
Dana Montague

QUILT SHOW BOUTIQUE

Now is the time to think about what you might like to make for the "Quilt Show Boutique". This will be another great event and a fantastic opportunity to help support the guild. Our show will be close to the upcoming holidays, think about gifts you might like to give or receive when you are making items for the boutique. Sewing themes are always fun for Quilty Friends. Kitchen themed items make great gifts. Holiday themed items for children and adults. Don't forget furry friends.

Be sure to use updated fabrics and colors. I will be collecting the items for the boutique at the September and October meetings. Label your items with a price, and if you would like your items back if they don't sell.

Thanks for your support,

Joyce Wilkinson

COMMUNITY SERVICE – SENIOR CENTER

Thank you to everyone who turned in items to the community service table. You are all amazing.

We received 75 completed placemats -- that is a new record. Thank you again so much. We also received 14 placemats that will need binding, one shawl and one wheelchair quilt. We are so very close to our goal of 500 placements for the senior center.

Congratulations to our three winners from the community service drawing Barbara M, Barbara S and Jean C.

Happy sewing

GUIDE DOG OF AMERICA QUILT

Blocks are in! If you still have one that is in any stage (from kit to finish) please return it to me at the meeting. My helpers and I will put it together to add to their silent auction small quilt donation later in the year. Thank you to everyone who took the time to make blocks. Lorraine and I will be playing with the placement of the blocks, and choosing sashing this week. Once those decisions are made, Gabrielle and I, plus any who are willing, will be cutting sashing and assembling the top. If you have an hour or two or more to contribute some time the week of 9/29, please let me know at the meeting or by text/email. When the top is assembled, I will have it available for the Quilt Show, as our liaison is coming, and then it will go to the quilter. We will be returning it completed at the January 2025 meeting. GDA usually brings some pups in training to pick it up.

VA PROJECTS

We are hoping that we will be making a donation the week of Nov 3rd at the VA with some of our members. There are two floors where we will be handing out items to various members, and being able to visit with them as well. I am trying to collect as many of the completed items to give Pamela White, our liaison, at the October Community Service meeting. Please bring any you might have, or let me know if I can get them from you, by the 3rd. I have labels for all quilt items if you need one to put on the back. Clothing protectors (vests) do not have labels.

At the meeting I will have a signup sheet for the trip to LA. Hopefully we can coordinate some car-pools! More details on dates/times to come. Let me know what days/times you are available. it will be about a 4 hour commitment with the drive.
