

Bradley House (1967)

Marker #: 9861

Marker Text:

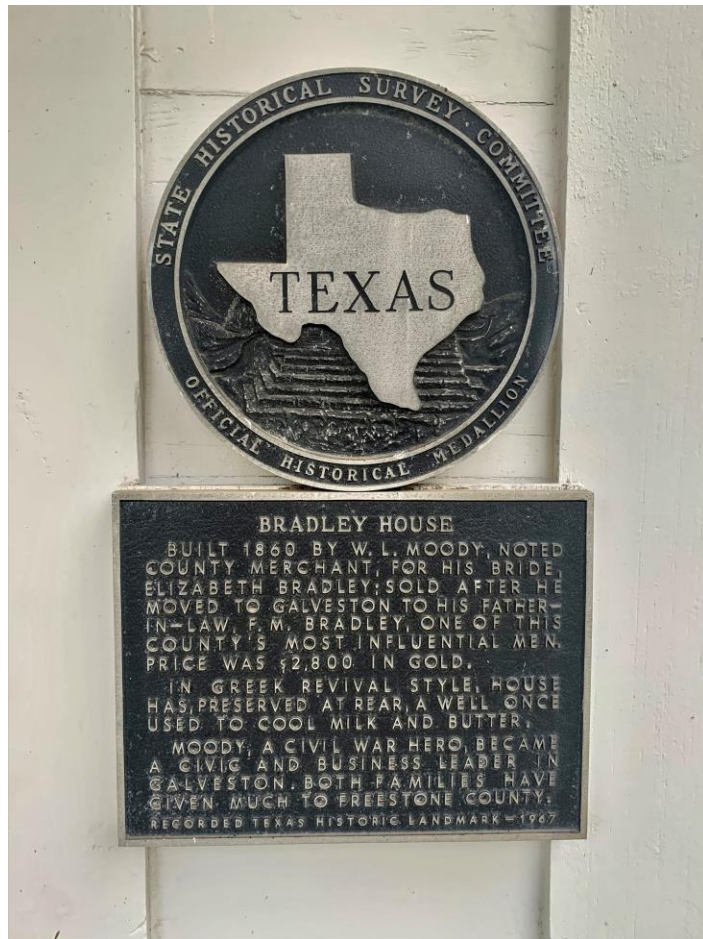

Built 1860 by W. L. Moody, noted county merchant, for his bride, Elizabeth Bradley; sold after he moved to Galveston to his father-in-law, F. M. Bradley, one of this county's most influential men. Price was $2,800 in gold. In Greek revival style, house has, preserved at rear, a well once used to cool milk and butter. Moody, a Civil War hero, became a civic and business leader in Galveston. Both families have given much to Freestone County.

Recorded Texas Historic Landmark - 1967

Directions: At the intersection of Hwy 84 and Hwy 75 in Fairfield, head north towards the school. Turn right on Moody Street, the house is just past the Fairfield Nursing and Rehab Center on the left hand side of the road.
