A MESSAGE FROM OUR CLUB PRESIDENT

Greetings Classic Chevy Club,

August is now upon us and we are 2/3 through our summer recess... I hope everyone is staying cool and enjoying their travels, relaxation, or both! I had a wonderful trip to the Mediterranean with my family and soaked in all of the tremendous history in the region (and maybe a little wine too). A friendly reminder that our first meeting of the season will be on Tuesday September 16th at O'Rielly Chevrolet, 6:30 PM as usual.

I was very glad to see the 27 members who attended our July club event at Hi-Speed Rods & Customs. We were shown around by owner John Sewell, who is a "jack of all trades" when it comes to auto restoration and customization. His beautiful shop is housed in the old Rainbow Bread factory from the 1950s, and he had spent 2 years restoring the building as well. Once finished, we headed next door to Barrio Brewing Co. for great eats and even better company!

Also, a big thank you to MaryLou for her work in planning this month's bowling event on the 9th. If you have not already done so, please RSVP to MaryLou so she can get an accurate headcount for this event.

See everyone soon!

All my best,

Anthony Warren, CCCT President

Q: What can a man do while his wife is going through menopause?

A: Keep busy. If you're handy with tools, you can finish the basement. When you're done, you will have a place to live.

Q: How can you increase the heart rate of your over 70-year-old husband?

A: Tell him you're pregnant.

A NOTE OF APPRECIATION FROM CLUB MEMBER JEFF BRITT

The best thing about the club is the members. I can't tell you how grateful I am for the messages I got and the prayers of our club members who contacted me when I was taking care of my wife, and later, my dad. I will be forever grateful for your kindness. I guess it was just my turn as I was recently diagnosed with Parkinson's. I have started taking medication and getting physical therapy and I just wanted to let the club know a few things. First, you are still stuck with me as the doctor said I have a fair number of years left since the medication and the physical therapy will slow the progression. Secondly, if you see me walking, don't assume I've started hitting the bottle. The Parkinson's and my bad back have combined to make me a little unsteady and I sometimes have to use a cane. I can't drink anymore due to the medications I take so I'm not self-medicating and I'll have to skip the senior Olympics for the rest of my life. God Bless.

Jeff Britt

JULY ACTIVITY

July 19th - HiSpeed Rods & Customs tour by owner John Sewell lunch followed at Barrio Brewery. We had 27 participants in the wonder tour and lunch.

Hi-Speed Rods & Customs the newest occupant of 829 E 17th Ave. Many Tucson residents that grew up around the neighborhood remembered:

The Rainbo Bakery at 829 E 17th St in Tucson was once a bustling hub of bread-making that served the community for decades. Originally part of the Rainbo Bread Company—a brand known nationwide for its soft, fluffy loaves and iconic rainbow logo—the Tucson facility operated under the name Rainbo Baking Company of Tucson, incorporated in 1940.

After its baking days ended, the building found new life in Tucson's arts scene. In the late 1990s, the former bakery was transformed into a creative space by Orts Theatre of Dance, which established the Tucson Movement Arts Warehouse in the old garage and baking rooms. This adaptive reuse was part of a broader revitalization of Tucson's warehouse district, turning industrial relics into vibrant cultural venues.

On the Lighter-side

Got stuck behind this guy for a bit, and I'm not even mad.

Speed Limit

A Highway Patrol Officer pulled over a little old lady for going ten miles per hour on the highway.

As he waked up to old ladies car, he noticed there were three other elderly folks looking very frightened and rigid.

He leaned down to the old ladies window and noticed she was as calm as could be.

Do you know why I pulled you over ma'am?

She quietly and nervously replied, No, I do not.

You were going 10 miles per hour on the highway, that's a serious hazard for other drivers.

The little old lady pointed at the sign nearby.

Isn't the speed limit 10? The officer looked at the sign and laughed.

Ma'am, that's the sign telling you which highway you're on. Interstate 10.

The little old lady burst out in fit of giggles.

Oh my, I am so sorry.

The officer decided it was an honest mistake and was going to let the little old lady go.

But curiosity got the better of him. Can I ask why your passengers are so scared?

The little old lady laughed again. Probably because I just got off Interstate 175.

In the shower without my glasses:
Eenie meenie miney mo, shampoo?
conditioner? I don't know.

Looking for a Club shirt with your name on it?

Contact Ann Van Orden 770-778-2963 she is charging $5 to embroider your name and club logo.

NOTE: YOU MUST PROVIDE YOUR OWN SHIRT

HOW OLD WERE YOU WHEN YOU FOUND OUT THESE LINES ARE ACTUALLY MEASUREMENTS?

WHAT DID THESE PEOPLE HAVE IN COMMON?

YOU'LL HIT EVERY CONE ON THE HIGHWAY BEFORE I LET YOU MERGE IN FRONT OF ME..

BECAUSE YOU SAW THAT SIGN 2 MILES AGO JUST LIKE I DID.

The older I get, the more I understand why roosters scream to start their day.

I have many hidden talents. I just wish I could remember where I hid them.

Are you an active member? The kind that would be missed, or are you just contented that your name is on the list. Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock, or do you stay home and criticize and knock? Do you take an active part to help the work along, or are you satisfied to be the kind that "just belong?". And we'll appreciate it if you'll come and help us out. So come to the meetings often and help us with work and hearts. Don't be just a member, but take an active part. Think this over member:
