MaryLou Lopez, secretary

All I'm saying is, at any point during that ride through the desert, he could have given the horse a name.

I remember the first time I saw a universal remote control. I thought to myself, "Wow this changes everything."

Why do people say, "Tuna Fish sandwich" Yet nobody says "Chicken Bird sandwich."

A MESSAGE FROM OUR CLUB PRESIDENT

Hi everyone, welcome to our Pre-Showdown newsletter.

With only five weeks left until our Chevy Showdown Car Show, we need to think and breathe Showdown. It's falling into place very nicely. I would like to thank everyone who is involved, and been supporting over the years, our big event. To all of our many newer club members, thank you for signing up to make our 37th annual car show another success. This has always been a team effort since it was started in 1985!

I would like to ask all of our members to please try to make our March club meeting. All last-minute Showdown items will be brought up, and checked off as being ready for launch. Our success is due to a club wide community effort.

One last item that has always been a major success is our show raffle. This one event has been the number one contributor to providing over 50% of our show's charitable donations. I am asking all our members to please support this event by donating an item that has a value of $25 or more. Let's make this year's raffle a huge success so we will be able to donate $500 each to our four charities. This will be the 7th year of this magnitude of fundraising to our community. This is a big thank you in advance! Please bring your donations to our "March meeting" so Pat can make this year's raffle one for the records.

Our clubs February club event was another record. We had 31 members and family turn out for a fabulous breakfast at Laverna's Coffee Shop. It was great to see everyone having a great time and becoming new friends with other members.

Don't forget to respond back to Ann's Poker Run email, pertaining to our club's March 23rd event. This annual event is a chance for everyone to drive in their classics, and see a lot of the beautiful scenery of Tucson. The member with the highest hand at the end of the run will also win a $50 gift card.

One last item before I let you go. Our May 10th club event is to display our classics at Old Tucson Studios. All for free. More information to follow next month in March. Save the date...

Best regards, and please drive safe, Frank

A male driver is pulled over by a cop and the following conversation takes place:
Man: What's the problem officer?
Cop: You were going at least 75 in a 55 zone.
Man: No sir, I was going 65.
Wife: Oh Harry. You were going 80.
(Man gives his wife a dirty look.)
Cop: I'm also going to give you a ticket for your broken tail light.
Man: Broken tail light? I didn't know about a broken tail light!
Wife: Oh Harry, you've known about that tail light for weeks.
(Man gives his wife a dirty look.)
Cop: I'm also going to give you a citation for not wearing your seat belt.
Man: Oh, I just took it off when you were walking up to the car.
Wife: Oh Harry, you never wear your seat belt.
Man: Shut your mouth, woman!
Cop: Ma'am, does your husband always talk to you this way?
Wife: No, only when he's drunk.

FLASH – Three CCCT members make the excursion in their classics to participate in Florence's Main Street Car and Cycle Car Show. February 22, 2025 – Location- Florence, AZ (photo & write-up Debbie Rosenberg)

The above is the short straight-to-the-point version of our 3-day stay at the Green Tree Inn. The real story starts as Bob and I in our Pontiac take the lead with Ann and Jay behind in what soon turns out to be the 'iffy' Apache Pickup, followed by

Blair and Junean in their Corvette. Both Bob and Jay do the usual pre-trip gas top off then we head up Ina Rd to Oracle Rd Take a note everyone, this was Not the best idea! The noon hour is Not the best choice going to Oracle Rd! But choose it we did and by the time we did the ridiculous left turn onto North Oracle we all were pretty much disgusted by everything --- but that turns out to be the easy part.

So northward we roll on and finally pass the last of the ever present street signals so our rides can step it up a notch and Junean and Blair can feel the wind in their hair. We make the turn onto Tom Mix's Highway 79 and 40 miles of open TWO lane road.

But hold it a minute.... My phone rings and Jay is telling us to SLOW DOWN, what? Why? Actually we're probably going between 60-65mph at that moment. He is saying something about the truck jumping and hesitating – but maybe the word was coughing and not jumping ... hard to understand and barely able to Hear! The wind, engine, car noises are overwhelming ... and guess what? There is absolutely NO pull-outs on Hwy 79 for 40 miles! I finally understand from Jay that the truck is 'missing' at speeds over 60mph, so we MUST reduce to 'under' 60 ... Ok, however as most of us know trying to keep a steady needle below 60 but above 55 is not all that easy on the foot, and depending on your gas pedal it's pretty darn difficult! The line of cars building behind Blair is actually getting long and Bob is feeling great pressure to step it up, but of course as The Leader you can't leave your ducks behind! So, basically we have to continue and hope those cars that do manage to get around our 3 cars don't shoot the leader!!

The plan to arrive and drive around Florence to first see the lay of the land is put aside as we drive to our hotel, Green Tree Inn, also on Main St., but at the end. We find some open spots to park, but Ann just gets the truck onto a dirt spot and the truck dies! Oh my, will it start again

We do the check-in process but Jay, Blair and I decide to take the Pontiac and cruise the area while Bob, Ann, and Junean recover from the two hour drive which seemed like Forever! We scope out the blocked off areas and the routes into the early morning entry area. Happily by then Jay's truck did start and was re-parked. By the way we did receive detailed instructions on how to do all of this but of course we wanted to find an easier and better way....

After a very good dinner across the street, we agreed upon a 5.30am gathering in the parking lot and a pull-out at 5.45am... Mostly it worked pretty well but it was still quite dark and I did miss the all-important turn as we saw the long line of red taillights that we would soon join ... Soon we were in the long line, inching ahead but mostly just idling, and Freezing! It was COLD.... Very cold. The line grew longer behind but not in front – no movement, so Ann took to walking ahead and soon disappeared (it is Dark). There are a lot of guys way at the far end working hard to get each car parked in their required angled perpendicular way, one car at a time – Blair says we were in that line for an hour (we were close enough to see this – while so many were much further back and had No idea what the heck was happening). VERY frustrating and a lot of 'Never Again' was spoken.

We all agree though that the show was amazing, so Many cars – 400 participants, we heard there was 330 pre-registered with 70 'day of' arrivals. Parked along old town in front of the store fronts it made for a very attractive street to walk down with collectible vehicles at every step. Lots of food vendors and at least 3 or 4 restaurants and coffee shops doing great business. The weather was Perfect! Cold morning gave way to a beautiful day.

Bob checked his transmission fluid for reasons you all know and low and behold it was VERY low -- walking down the street we ran into CCCT member Steve Thatcher and in response to Bob's comment he led us to his car -- darned if he doesn't carry a quart of transmission fluid !! Thank you, Steve.

Into the afternoon we noticed some cars with a small green round dot on the windshield. What does that mean? Starting to look at cars with this we finally saw a green dot on the Pontiac! Blair, being the guy he is immediately checked the Vette and Nope, no green dot! This of course to Blair proved that the green dot doesn't mean much -- checked Jay's and, no doesn't have one either Later as we walked around dropping into the GM cars our Showdown registration forms we noticed that Steve's yellow '57 Chevy has the dot,,, and a little further down the road we see that Paul Miller's '67 Vette also does !! Blair, by now, is in a tizzy and is trying to figure this all out -- Truth hits Blair hard ,,, but a good hug helps.

The interesting thing about these green dots is that it seems that this 'club' has 200+ award plaques and trophies.... ! Not everyone gets one, but Florence has a ton of support from their sponsors -- who provided most of these winning awards... The city appears to really back this event and turns out in huge numbers.

The restaurants and stores we visited were all friendly and helpful.

The in-town dinner was again very good with a wonderful server who did a great job dividing up split-dinners -- Our stay was comfortable with our free breakfast more than sufficient also with a friendly helper.

Driving home was still an ordeal due to having to keep mph below 60 but this time we were prepared and you know if those behind can't figure out when and how to pass a vehicle maybe THEY shouldn't be on the road!

I know we each said -- Never Again -- but maybe we will (but not with Jay's truck).

County alerting residents to phone scam

PIMA COUNTY, Feb. 18, 2025 - Some Pima County residents have reported receiving phone calls from County phone numbers with the caller purporting to be a County employee who is seeking to obtain personally identifying information or credit card numbers to pay a bill. These calls are NOT coming from the County. The scammers are using a Caller ID "spoofer" to masquerade as the County.

If you're ever uncertain if the person you're speaking to works for the County, ask their name and the department they work for and tell them you'll call them back and hang up. You can then go to www.pima.gov and search for the department and call the phone number on the page to verify they are a County employee and calling for a legitimate purpose. Or you can call 520-724-9999 and explain the situation to the County operator who will seek to verify whether the call is indeed from the County.

Already, the County was made aware of a customer who was contacted by phone from someone purporting to be from Pima County. The caller was asked to pay a bill, a permit or a fee, which they did, before discovering that their credit card was subsequently used for fraudulent purposes.

Additionally, if anyone ever comes to your home or business and says they are from the County, be sure to ask to see their County-issued photo ID. County IDs are plastic, the size of a credit card, and have the employee's name, photo, and department on the front and other identifying information on the back.

Any attempted fraud should be reported to the Arizona Attorney General's Consumer Fraud Department, www.azag.gov/complaints/consumer.

The Story

A man walked into a supermarket with his zipper down.

A female checker walked up to him and said, "Your barracks door is open."

Not a phrase that men normally use, he went on his way looking a bit puzzled.

When he was just about done shopping, a man came up and said, "Your fly is open."

He zipped up and finished his shopping.

At the checkout, he intentionally got in the line where the girl was that told him about his "barracks door."

He was planning to have a little fun with her, so when he reached the counter he said, "When you saw my barracks door open, did you see a soldier standing in there at attention?"

The girl thought for a moment and said:

"No, no I didn't..... but I saw a disabled veteran sitting on a couple of old duffel bags."..

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

To have a good time while loving, restoring and preserving the Classic Chevrolet and other GM vehicles through 1987

THE ACTIVE MEMBER

Are you an active member? The kind that would be missed, or are you just contented that your name is on the list. Do you attend the meetings and mingle with the flock, or do you stay home and criticize and knock?

Do you take an active part to help the work along, or are you satisfied to be the kind that "just belong?". Do you ever go to visit a member who is sick, or leave the work to just a few and talk about the clique? There's quite a program scheduled that I'm sure you've heard about. And we'll appreciate it if you'll come and help us out. So come to the meetings often and help us with work and hearts. Don't be just a member, but take an active part. Think this over member:

You know right from wrong.

Are you an ACTIVE member or do YOU just belong?

BRAIN AT 3AM:

I CAN SEE YOU'RE TRYING TO SLEEP, SO I WOULD LIKE TO OFFER YOU A SELECTION OF EVERY MEMORY, UNRESOLVED ISSUE, OR THINGS YOU SHOULD HAVE SAID OR DONE TODAY, OR IN THE PAST 40 YEARS!

Never hold your farts in. They travel up your spine, in to your brain, and that's where shitty ideas come from.

Back in my day there was so much Toilet Paper and Eggs that we would throw them at the houses of our enemies

When I was little, I didn't care about things like what to wear, my parents dressed me.

Looking back at some of my old pictures, it's obvious that my parents didn't care either.

So I went to wash my hands at a car themed restaurant... These were the sinks

This morning, I was beaten up by a busty woman in an elevator. I was staring at her boobs when she said, "Would you please press one?"

So I did.

I don't remember much after that...
