PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Greetings Guild Members,

It was so good to see the new year start out great. Thank you to all for the baby shower items for Grace Pregnancy Care Center. It is such a blessing to give.

There are some open committee opportunities starting in April. Hospitality, the Exchange Table, and Education. Let me know if you would like to fill one of these spots.

It was great to see the blocks kits for the 2024 donation quilt being picked up. I am excited to see it completed. Thank you Sue Glick and Kay Hardy. Remember we have a goal of $3000 for our current donation quilt. Please be on the lookout where the quilt might be taken for ticket sales. Plan to help and assist to fulfill this goal. I know some members received their packet of tickets today.

The Nominating Committee (Lyla Wenneker, Kathie Hilton, and Bonnie Magid) Thank you ladies.

I am looking forward to participating in the UFO Challenge this year. I hope I am as successful as some were this past year. Way to go ladies. Dig out those projects and let's get them finished.

Until February Keep Stitching.

"I was extremely honored to be asked to be the 2023 Featured Quilter for the Livingston Piecemakers Quilt Guilds Quilt Show in 2023. I look forward to seeing you at the LPQG Quilt Show on April 21st & 22nd at the Polk County Commerce Center in Livingston, Texas." -- Cathy Introducing our 2023 Featured Quilter, Cathy Tullos!

Cathy has been sewing since she was a child and by the time she was a teenager she was making her own clothes.

Her mother was a very talented seamstress and dabbling in quilting. She soon developed a desire to make quilts for her immediate family members; however, her mother was only able to complete quilts for Cathy and her brother prior to her diagnosis of Pulmonary Fibrosis in 2008. Just before her diagnosis, Cathys father had purchased a long arm quilting machine for her mother who unfortunately never had the opportunity to use it.

Several months later Cathys father asked her if she would be interested in working alongside him to make quilts for the rest of the family to fulfill her mothers dreams. She wholeheartedly agreed to help and assist him! Her father selected several patterns and the two of them stitched together a few quilt tops and quilted them on the long arm!

Up until that point, Cathy had not realized what a tremendous passion she had for quilting!

In the thirteen plus years since finding her joy and passion, she has pieced and quilted many quilts for her children, grandchildren, and also for numerous friends and customers. She eventually purchased her own long arm machine in an effort to quilt from her own home.

She worked part time from her home to establish her long arm business beginning in 2014. She made the decision to step away from a forty hour a week job to quilt full time in 2016. She stated it was the best decision she ever made!

Cathy puts her heart and lots of love into each of the quilts she stitches and quilts. Each quilt comes alive and each one has a memory, history, a purpose, and becomes a blessing to the recipient. For this reason and the love of quilting, 'Love That Binds' came to be her business name.

In addition to the many quilts she has created, several have been donated as Quilts of Valor while others have been donated to various organizations for fund raisers.

Cathy has been a member of the Southern Belle, a training organization in Arkansas since 2019. She quilts on a Gammill Long Arm and continues to build her skills as a custom quilter. Recently, she was awarded a Blue Ribbon at the Houston Livestock Show & Rodeo 2022 for her quilt, Sherbet, she entered. Several of her clients have won ribbons for quilts that she quilted. As she perfects her craft, she plans to venture out and enter more of her work in various quilt shows.

In the years since beginning her quilting journey, she has not lost her passion for her craft. She gives credit to God who has truly blessed her in her quilting endeavor and with a vast circle of friends and customers in the wonderful world of quilting!

The UFO Challenge for 2023 will be done a bit differently – month by month.

You can get the form from Karen or use the one listed in the newsletter on the next page. Fill it out and keep a copy for yourself and give the filled out form to Karen at the February guild meeting.

There will be one bonus month to be completed any time during the year.

Congrats to Donna Garland, who won $55 for the UFO Contest for 2022.

Name _____

2023 Livingston Piecemakers UFO Challenge

List up to 12 separate items, or projects you would like to complete each month. Be as specific as possible. (Example — put binding on Valentine wall hanging, complete one trippy star block, organize scraps by color).

We will be going in order by month so you can put items, tasks or projects in a specific order.

Bring your completed item for the month to be checked in. Your name will be entered into a drawing for prizes at the end of the year. Items may only be turned in the day of our LPQG meeting for credit (by person or email). If a month's meeting is cancelled multiple items will be due the following month. The more months complete the more chances you have at the end of year to win a prize!

Turn your form into Karen Godfrey (713-504-3613 or karengodfrey52@gmail.com) at our February meeting.

We will start in February, notice there is one bonus spot (January) you can bring at any time during the year.

QUILT SHOW Report

LPQG | 08 January 2023

Help Guild Members,

If you didn't stay for the Quilt show meeting I encourage every guild member to stay and help out. There is a place for you. The 2023 Quilt Show is under way. It takes all of us to get it done.

Remember to look in your closet for skirt hangers. That is how the quilts are hung and we need more.

Consider making a mini quilt for the silent auction. They are fun.

Remember we are having the basket silent auction also. These baskets don't have to be quilt related.

Quilt entries are needed. Go to the website and print off copies and mail/email them in. They are due February 1st. Original forms and monies for each entry can be turned in at the meeting.

We plan to hang 100 plus quilts. Your quilt can have a quilt sponsor for $25.

Don't forget to share the show flyer on your social media sites. Let's get the word out.

Thanks to all that have been helping get this show under way.

Jammie Ackley, President

How to Bind a Quilt

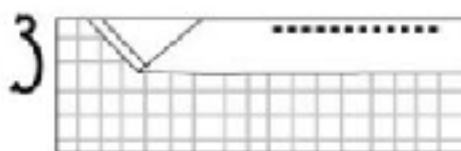

Sweetbriar Sisters.com

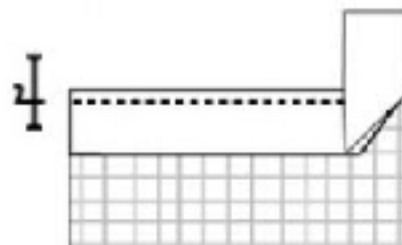

1 Lay binding out flat, fold one corner 45°. Cut triangle off, leaving 1/4" after the fold.

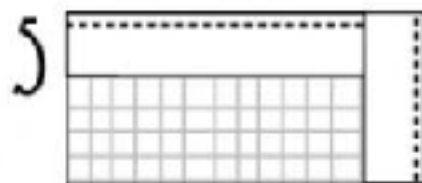

2 Iron the fold in place.

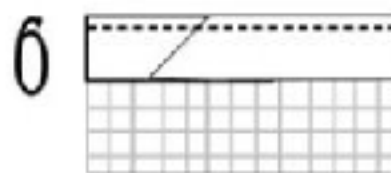

3 Refold binding and line up raw edges with the raw edges of your quilt. Begin sewing on the binding about an inch after the opening.

4 Stop sewing 1/4" from the corner. Fold your binding up at a right angle.

5 Fold it back down, covering the diagonal fold and keeping the top edge in line with the top of the quilt. Continue around the quilt, repeating the corner folds on each corner.

6 When you get to where you started, trim your binding to end slightly before your first seam began. Tuck your binding inside the opening made in the first step and sew in place.

7 Turn your quilt over to the back. Fold the binding over the raw edges of the quilt and sew in place by hand.

TEXAS QUILT MUSEUM
History in the Making

Beginning on January 5th and running through April 29, are Red Work: The Collection of Rosie deLeon-McCrary (sponsored by the Lucille Gaebler Klein Fund); Places: A Celebration of the Human Hand...Works by Marilyn Henrion; and International Quilt Festival Prizewinners 2022.

Red Work: The Collection of Rosie deLeon-McCrary will feature 41 items including quilts, table runners, towels, and pillows. According to Museum Curator Vicki Mangum, Redwork embroidery became popular in the 1800's when the dyeing process for Turkey Red Thread developed with colorfast techniques.

Rosie deLeon-McCrary fell in love with the technique early on and began collecting antique and modern versions of the Redwork embroidery found in quilts. You will see quilts completed in the last quarter of the 19th century as well as her most recently designed and quilted quilt from 2022. We will also have several of Rosie's Redwork patterns/designs for sale in the TQM store.
