

President's Corner

Fall is fast approaching. I am looking forward to some cooler weather and all the fall colors.

At the October meeting, Jammie Ackley presented the Deb Tucker Studio 180 designs with tools and patterns. She demonstrated a different way of cutting, sewing and trimming to achieve the perfect points on our quilts. Thank you Jammie for sharing your creativity with the guild.

Thanks to all for your attendance and for participating in the fun games. The games help our guild and somebody can win a lot of Fat Quarters!

The Scheduler, Donna is accepting places to take our 2024 Quilt. Our Donation Quilt is a large fund raiser for our Guild. Thanks to all for selling tickets.

First Vice President, Programs

I want to thank Jammie Ackley for her wonderful Studio 180 presentation. I hope everyone was able to glean some useful nuggets from her. Also, thank you to Lisa Polk for filling in for Cheryl Cox in taking minutes of the meeting and Kathy O'Tierney and Deb Cox for filling in for Destiny Pennington taking photos so she could help out with her new granddaughter.

The program for the November meeting will be binding methods, tips and tricks. Come ready to take notes and learn something new. This seemed to be what many of us got marked down on at our quilt show.

Topics covered will be:

1. Correct hand sewing on binding and making sure your binding is full.
2. Turning corners (mitered) and matching ends
3. Machine binding
4. Flange binding
5. Scalloped binding
6. Self binding

Just a reminder for the December meeting - This will be our Christmas/Holiday celebration. Plan on coming ready to have some fun and enjoy great food.

Things to plan for:

1. There will be an ugly sweater contest for anyone who would like to participate.
2. Each member is asked to bring a potluck dish to share. Please bring things that don't require the oven or microwave and bring serving utensils (preferably disposable).
3. Bring a wrapped handmade ornament or table decoration to exchange.
4. Bring a wrapped sewing/quilting related gift valued at about $20 to exchange.
5. Anyone that has been participating in the Secret Sister should bring their final gift and reveal to your Sister.

Another important upcoming meeting that we need to plan ahead for is the January meeting we will have our annual Baby Shower for Grace Pregnancy Center. Begin gathering/making things for that. They will need all of the normal baby shower type items.

March is our 30th Anniversary Celebration. More information will be coming as we plan that.

Thank you to everyone for what you do to make our guild thrive. We do make a difference in our communities.

Don't worry, Sew happy!

November 13th – Monthly Meeting and Binding Techniques

December 11th – Monthly Meeting with Christmas and Holiday Party

Ladies~

Our October 9th LPQG meeting was held on a beautiful morning! We were blessed with 46 members who attended along with two new guests. Past member Karen Ogg was a guest (Welcome back, Karen) along with Allie Parrish. Since our guild meeting last month, 28 of our members attended a Bee meeting. I encourage each of you to seek out a bee that fits your quilting needs.

Our members also reported over 577 hours of Community volunteering! Again, we are so proud of our very dedicated volunteers.

Door prizes this month were won by: Lyla Wenneker, Donna Garland, Kathy O`Tierney, Mary Parrish, and Vicki Wooddell! Congratulations ladies.

If you know of a friend or family member who is interested in quilting, we would love to have them visit us! What a great way to show off our amazing talent for quilt-making and possibly adding a new member!

Until next month, may you have many hours of Fabric-Therapy!

Joyfully~

Sharon Wright

FAT QUARTER WINNER – MARTY HUBBARD!

Next Month's Fat Quarter will be "Sew Much Fun" – any material with sewing things on it.

LPQG | 9 OCTOBER 2023 Meeting Minutes

Meeting was Called to Order at 9:33 by Bonnie Walker who thanked all for coming today. She welcomed all as well as visitors to the meeting and requested phones to be silenced.

Patty Drewett then opened the meeting with prayer.

Bonnie Walker opened the floor for any correction to the minutes from last month's quilt guild meeting. Donna Garland motioned to accept last month's minutes, and Marci Dickens seconded the motion.

Bonnie Magid motioned to accept financial minutes as printed in newsletter, and Jammie Ackley seconded the motion.

VICE PRESIDENT – MARCI DICKENS – Marci made a few announcements -

Next month there will be binding sessions in the various rooms of which some of our guild members will show how to do this.

December is Christmas and holiday celebration for the guild and to bring a handmade wrapped ornament for an exchange as well as a sewing related wrapped item $20 or so that you'd enjoy getting.

- We will also have an ugly sweater contest, so be ready to have a little fun with that.
- December is also when we reveal secret sisters.
- January will be baby shower for Grace Pregnancy Center, so bring anything you'd need to get for a new mom or things you'd take for a baby shower
- March is the anniversary for our guild and we'll have a celebration.
- 5th Mon. is Oct. 30th and we will work on pillowcases that we use to give Quilts of Valor away, so bring your machines. The location is here at Blanchard Baptist Church from 9am to 3pm and bring your lunch.

Marci then presented our speaker, Jammie Ackley. Jammie provided information about The Quilting Escape – Studio 180 and explained how she got accepted to learn and get certified to be an instructor. She explained the process of classes and how piecing has drastically changed with Studio 180. Tools in the bag associated with Studio 180 were displayed and organized by alphabetized files for all to see. Jammie explained how Studio 180 is for the realist not idealist designed by Deb Tucker and provided a handout explaining the tools available for order in the toolbox along with specifics of what and how they can be used. Accuracy and precision were key points shared as a result of using these tools. The idea of units per blocks was shared, and numerous tools and sizing were explained of which most have 6 sizes within one tool. Jammie then shared how these tools have multiple size usage. YouTube videos are also available for the tools to see a step by step of how to use them. She then displayed some of the tools and how to utilize the instructions of the tools as well as how to access and print them 8 ½ x 11 from the online website. A binder of 75 blockbuster blocks that are free to help utilize the tools were also on display of which most have 3 sizes to use. Tech sheets and block samples were explained, displayed and passed around for viewing. Beautiful quilts were displayed that utilized the units used with these tools such as the following:

- Wedged star tool used 8 wedges sewn into the block and then put together.
- A Block 9 Blockbuster table runner was displayed of the V block and 4 quarter squared triangles.
- Off set half square triangle was explained and displayed in a quilt of how a pattern was tested and critiqued.
- With the Rapid Fire LeMoyne Star traditional block tool table runners and a quilt were displayed.
- A quilt was also displayed that utilized the Hunter Star.
- Companion triangles on diamonds were explained and how one unit can be learned to put a whole quilt together. Units help construction to not be so intimidating.

Many beautiful quilts, bed runners, and table runners were displayed in addition to how using the tools were helpful in their creation. Next, Jamie involved volunteers in playing a game of constructing blocks with units. Prizes of needle sets were awarded to the winners. Marci Dickens announced a 15 min. break at 10:40am.

The meeting was called back to order by Bonnie Walker at 10:54 am, and reminded everyone that the doors are locked while we are in the meeting.

MEMBERSHIP – SHARON WRIGHT – Sharon reported the following:

- 45 members were at the guild meeting.
- Karen Ogg and Allie Parrish were announced as visitors.
- 577 volunteer hours reported at today's meeting and 28 Bee attendees.

Door prize winners were Lyla Wenneker, Kathy O'Tierney, Donna Garland, Mary Parrish, and Vicki Wooddell.

TREASURERS REPORT – PATTY DREWETT – Patty provided the following information of the treasury report:

- Beginning amount = $24,182,05
- Outflow of $494.73
- Net total of -$10.19

BLOCK OF THE MONTH – SHARON JEANS – Sharon displayed the quilt blocks turned in, and two people were in the running for the drawing. Congratulations Donna Garland on winning the seventeen blocks. The block for next month is a sewing spool pattern to be made with Batik material.

FAT QUARTER OF THE MONTH – GINGER SEBASTIAN – We had 16 fat quarters of Scare your Crow turned in. A drawing of 7 eligible members took place and Marti Hubbard won. Congratulations Marti! Next month's fat quarter theme is Sew Much Fun, so bring a fat quarter with sewing notions or anything sewing on it

EXCHANGE TABLE – MARY PARRISH – Mary reported that at the exchange table, many items and material were donated for sale including bolted material. Bitsy Barr explained and displayed fabric that is available for sale. Joyce Trojan announced the logo items for sale.

LIBRARIAN – KAREN LANTRON – Sheila Robertson shared information on the books and materials available for sale from the library.

F.A.I.T.H – LISA JEFFRIES – Sharon Jeffries announced that four people brought in goodies today including crocheted caps, candies, and toiletries. A packing session will take place Thursday at 5:30 at the physical therapy location and November 9th at 5:30 will be the following packing meeting.

HOSPITALITY – KATHIE HILTON – Kathie thanked all those who provided refreshments for the hospitality and announced that there are leaflets to take as a reminder for those who'd like to volunteer to bring snacks or drinks to next month's guild meeting.

HISTORIAN – KAY HARDY – No report for this month.

SPECIAL PROJECTS – KAREN GODFREY –Karen displayed Wish as the book to make a mini quilt for. Glenda Henson made a quilt for the Penguin Who Wanted to be Different and Sarah Bourne made one for Birds of a Feather Flock together. A mini quilt was made for the book, I Just Wanted to Say Goodnight by Glenda Henson.

COMMUNITY SERVICE – NORMA CHRISTENSEN - Sarah Bourne announced items that came in for donations of community service as follows: 78 placemats; 53 burp cloths; 10 stockings; 90 heart pillows; 8 bears; 2 squares / quilt tops; and 1 pillowcase. An announcement was made to please bring grocery bags to Bitsy Barr. Bonnie Walker explained how bags are crocheted for mats that go for homeless people in Nacogdoches, New Orleans and around the world that Bitsy organizes. Bitsy announced that she would be back in December and provide a workshop after the meeting of how to make mats out of grocery bags.

50/50 RAFFLE, BIRTHDAY, VISITORS – VICKIE MYERS – Vickie drew for the 50/50 raffle and Jammie Ackley was the winner of $17.00. Vickie also brought the basket of fat quarters for members with October birthdays. Members with October birthdays came forward and selected a fat quarter of their choice.

DONATION QUILT – MADI MCMURRAY - Bonnie Walker announced that our quilt will go out on October 17th. Madi announced that she has tickets for the quilt and each member will need to sell $25 of tickets. She will have tickets to pass out to members at the next meeting.

QUILT SCHEDULER – DONNA GARLAND – Donna has information on the quilt schedule. We have an opportunity to sell tickets at Escapees for the quilt at their Fall Festival and need 6 volunteers for 2-hour shifts so she can call them with information if needed.

- Sue Glick will take the quilt to the Peace by Piecing Quilt Guild in Humble on October 17th.
- In November, Destiny Pennington is taking the quilt to Bay Area Quilt Guild located in Houston.
- In December, Karen Godfrey and Jammie Ackley will take the quilt to Tall Pines Quilt Guild in Huntsville.
- In February of 2024, Lyla Wenneker is taking the quilt to Tri County Quilt guild in Cypress.

Donna will be scheduling more places so if anyone knows of an event to take it to, please let her know.

BEES - LaDonyce Hamilton announced that there will be a quilting bee in Coldspring tomorrow 10-4 at the Red Barn Quilt Retreat and is come and go and bring a lunch. This is for working on Quilts for Kids at the Red Barn. Quilts go to children of birth to age 22. A quilt was displayed by Karen Lee that was created at a bee.

SUNSHINE AND SHADOWS – SHARON JEFFERIES –Sharon announced that cards were sent to Norma Christensen, Lois Ross, Susan Bell, and Karen and Dave Godfrey. Sharon announced that BobbieLee Ruskis would be sent a card.

STASH BUILDER – GAIL KESTLER – Patty Lawson announced that 3 drawings would be conducted and the winners were Karen Ogg, Karen Lee and Kay Hardy.

HOMETOWN CHRISTMAS – KATHIE HILTON – Hometown Christmas is Saturday December 9. The guild will have a booth to sell items from noon to 8pm.

We will have quilts to sell and will need volunteers to sell tickets and items at the booth. Sometimes people will shop at the booth and inquire about the quilts, patterns, and quilting as they admire items displayed for sale. Kathie will be asking people to contribute quilts for sale. Mark the date as she will organize volunteers for the booth.

QUILTS OF VALOR – BONNIE WALKER – Bonnie displayed a quilt created by Darlene Hays who donated a quilt for Quilt of Valor. More quilts are needed. A quilt was displayed created by Bonnie Walker made in red, white, and blue grunge with an Accucutter. Pillowcases were also displayed with instructions provided for members who'd like to pick these up and make some. Bonnie will have the pillowcases cut out and ready to make with the hotdog method. A 9am-3pm class will be provided on Oct. 30th. Due to the death of a recipient a quilt will be presented to his wife. Nov. 11, 2024 is the date due for Quilts of Valor.

OTHER BUSINESS - A request came through the website inquiring if there is a bus to go to the Houston Quilt Show. Quilters Quarters was mentioned as to possibly have busses going. Bonnie Walker asked if there was any unfinished business. Kay Hardy requested input for an article for the guild's anniversary event so she can help with the publicity. Marci Dickens mentioned the idea of interviewing members. Bonnie Walker asked if there was any new business, and none was mentioned.

SHOW AND TELL – MARCI DICKENS –

- Karen Godfrey displayed a beautiful quilt of sewing machines and one of an adorable bear wearing glasses.
- Kay Hardy showed a quilt made with the technique of a scrappy- trip-around-the-world that was quilted in sections on her domestic machine, and she explained how she completed the binding.
- Jammie Ackley displayed a pumpkin table runner, Boo Wall Hanging (for a drawing won by Teresa Richard), and a Center for Mystery Star in January. She announced to let her know if anyone wants to be a part of the Mystery Star so she can order booklets
- Patty Drewett showed a pattern that she made a purse and wallet from.
- Melanie Fredrickson displayed a quilted Halloween panel. She explained how she did outline stitching, added specialty items, and how she added the backing added specialty items, and how she added the backing segments for the rod for hanging.
- Glenda Henson showed a quilt made with a historical reference of Bourgoyne's Surround, an 1812 battle. She also displayed a temperature quilt created from last year's highs and lows of each day. Each line represents a month. Glenda also showed how she included the temperature key on the quilt backing. A mini quilt with Halloween décor and fall table runner were also shown.
- Bonnie Walker explained that fabric is donated as well as patterns when working on Quilts for Kids. She displayed a beautiful quilt made with cats on it. Another quilt was made with purple scraps that turned out beautiful and reminded us that kids and retirement home residents enjoy the color.
- Sharon Jeans showed a quilt entitled "Owl Always Love You" from a Riley Blake pattern with a flange binding. She displayed the owl on the front and backing that is also at LaDonna's.

NEW BUSINESS – None. Karen Godfrey made a motion to adjourn the meeting. Marci Dickens seconded the motion. All reports need to be sent to Vicki Wooddell for the newsletter. Meeting adjourned. Respectfully Submitted, Lisa Polk / Cheryl Cox, Secretary

LPQG Board Meeting was called to order by Bonnie Walker at 12:10pm.

By Laws – Jammie Ackley announced that she will type the bylaws and get with Debbie to write these correctly to be able to distribute appropriately. By laws, shop sponsorship, and standing rules will be typed and presented.

Quilting Patterns – Bonnie provided the binder for tables to mark what they like to include in as a pattern for a donation quilt.

Quilt show – Jammie announced that we are still needing a quilt name and a designer to put on the website. She explained that ones who might want to make quilt of the name would have sufficient time to make it. Building a Beautiful World One Quilt at a Time was a name mentioned by Karen. Other ideas were mentioned around the theme and ideas can be sent to Jammie to vote on next month.

Hometown Christmas – Information was provided in the guild meeting of having a booth from Noon to 8 pm, but she will need volunteers for set up as well.

Events – Marci Dickens asked the committee about decorations and working on getting through this year.

Kathie Hilton mentioned what we do and bring for the Christmas meeting including crock pots, desserts, salad, drinks, heavy duty plates, cups, napkins and what we'd bring and arrange for this gathering. Volunteers bring these items for the luncheon by raising their hand and mentioning what they will bring.

Reports – Chairs get a segment to Vicki Wooddell to include in a newsletter.

Membership – Sharon Wright announced that she will shoot for the January meeting and reorganizing how membership is done.

Kay announced that she will get with Marci for the anniversary event.

No other announcements from chairs were given.

At 12:25pm Mary Parrish motioned to adjourn the meeting and Marci Dickens seconded it.
