

President's Corner

Happy Holidays to everyone. Welcome to all of our new members. The best way to meet new people is to join a Bee and become involved.

I'm sure everyone enjoyed the several different ways shown on how to sew on a binding. Thank you, ladies, for your demonstrations.

I hope everyone is planning on attending Hometown Christmas on December 9th. The Guild's 2024 quilt "Monticello" will be on display. This is a good time to show off the Quilt and sell tickets.

The Christmas Party will be a little different this year. Marci has some interesting things planned. There will be no Show and Tell, Stash Builders or Door Prizes at the December meeting. There will not be a Board Meeting either. Thank you.

First Vice President, Programs

I want to thank Bonnie Walker, Kay Hardy, Destiny Pennington and Madi McMurray for sharing their expertise on binding techniques. I hope everyone was able to learn something new and useful.

The program for the December meeting will be our annual holiday celebration. Plan on coming ready to have some fun and enjoy great food.

Things to plan for:

1. *There will be an ugly sweater contest for anyone who would like to participate.
2. Each member is asked to bring a potluck dish to share. Please bring things that don't require the oven or microwave and bring serving utensils (preferably disposable).
3. *Bring a wrapped handmade ornament or table decoration to exchange.
4. *Bring a wrapped sewing/quilting related gift valued at about $20 to exchange.
5. Anyone that has been participating in the Secret Sister should bring their final gift and reveal to your Secret Sister.

*These are optional for those who want to participate

After the December meeting, Bitsy Barr will be available to teach how to make a sleeping mat for the homeless from plastic grocery bags. Bring bags and crochet hooks if you are interested.

Another important upcoming meeting that we need to plan ahead for is the January meeting we will have our Baby Shower for Grace Pregnancy Center. Begin gathering/making things for that. They will need all of the normal baby shower type items.

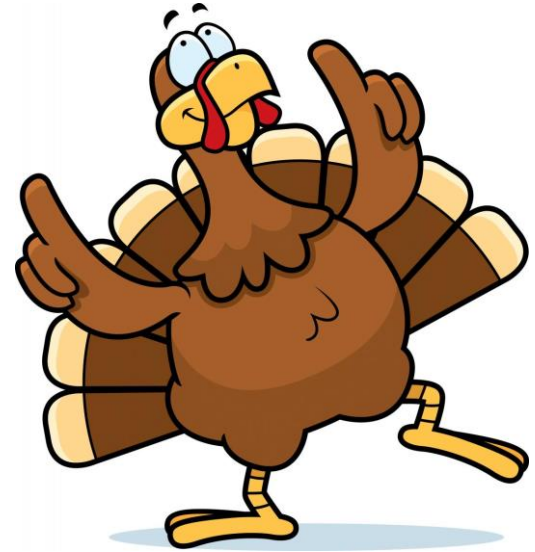

March is our 30th Anniversary Celebration. More information will be coming as we plan that.

Thank you to everyone for what you do to make our guild thrive. We do make a difference in our communities.

Don't worry, Sew happy!

Marci Dickens

2nd Vice President, Membership

Ladies-

I cannot believe it is already November, where has the year gone? We had a wonderful November program on the many ways to bind a quilt. There were 48 members along with 2 guests in attendance. Our guests were Keith Coleman and Joyce Eberhart, where she traveled all the way from Buena Vista, Colorado! Since our last guild meeting, our members have logged 1,022 volunteer hours with various charity organizations in the area. Twenty-seven of our members have attended at least one bee meeting. During the guild meeting, door prizes were won by the following members: Sharon Wright, Sharon Jeans, Sharon Jeffries (anyone see a pattern here?), Ginger Sebastian, and Mary Kirk.

Have a Blessed Thanksgiving~

Joyfully,

Sharon Wright
