RJ Bunnies Inc. Hand Event Policies

- Reservations must be made 2 weeks prior to the event date. Short notice events will be handled on a case-by-case basis.
- Balance is due upon arrival to your event by cash or credit card. There is a transaction fee of $20 for credit card payments.
- Due to the nature of our 'out of office' service we need you to consider that there are acts of God that are beyond any normal person's control such as but not limited to, inclement weather such as rain, snow, sleet, hail, lightning, thunder, earthquakes, heavy winds, etc. It is the duty of the event host to notify us of any inclement weather at the events location within 4 hours of the scheduled event. The event can be rescheduled on another day, and or deposits can be refunded. However, if the host fails to notify us of inclement weather and we make an attempt to arrive at the event location deposits may become non-refundable due to the fact we spent irreplaceable time prepping, loading, and transporting animals and equipment. If inclement weather poses a risk during the event, we may prorate the event fees. For example, if we made it halfway through the 1-hour event, you can be refunded the $200 that that second half hour cost so on and so forth. This is dealt with on a case-by-case basis.
- Due to unpredictable traffic conditions and inclement weather that can vary depending on our distance from the event, please be advised that the scheduled start time of your party is subject to a 30-minute leeway. Although we make every attempt to arrive early and be prepared.
- Reserved parking is mandatory for our vehicle. We need a safe and adequate location to unload and load our animals and equipment. If a spot is not reserved, it can and will cut into our set up time and if it forces us to unload in a compromised area you may be charged a $50 set up fee to help accommodate the extra time and effort we need to put into our set up.
- Our set up area needs to be free of any debris, obstacles, or hazards. We require an area away from jump houses, any play equipment, live bands, or any activities that involve items being thrown, hit or that may involve children running around as that may compromise the animal's comfort level. Our animals are desensitized to many noises, but they can be unpredictable due to fear which can put people and the animals at risk.
- The setup area needs to be a minimum of 12 feet by 12 feet although a bigger area allows for more room for participants to enjoy the bunnies. Shelter will need to be provided to keep bunnies out of direct sunlight. The area needs to be free of landscaping as the animals may consume them and we need to keep poisonous plants away from the animals so by keeping all landscaping out of reach we are insuring our animal's well-being. Keep in mind if the area is grassy, damage may occur, and we are not liable for those damages.
- We reserve the right to include or exclude our animals for any reason we deem necessary as we are solely responsible for our animals, and we need to consider their health and well-being.
- Waiver and release of liabilities need to be filled out prior to any participants access to animals. Event Host must fill out a waiver and release of liability as well. The release of liability will need to be filled out prior to entering our bunny area. If parents are dropping their child off at the party, an agreement must be signed prior to them leaving their child at the party.

Please take note of the following rules that the event host and its attendee's must follow:

- ALL children must be supervised at all times. We will not be responsible for injuries or accidents incurred by unsupervised children.
- Our bunnies are living and breathing creatures, not machines. They are to be treated with respect by the event host and all the host's attendees. No running, chasing, hitting, screaming at, yelling at, throwing at, picking up or exhibiting any threatening behavior towards the animals. We reserve the right to ask any attendee to leave our bunny zone if they are not following the directions of the bunny attendant.
- No climbing or sitting on our pens is allowed. Damages to our equipment by host or host's attendees will be the sole responsibility of the event host.
- All outside food and drinks must be kept out of the bunny zone for the safety of the animals. There will be designated food that is appropriate for feeding our bunnies.
- No dogs are allowed anywhere near the bunny zone. This is for the safety of our bunnies and participants. Dogs are unpredictable around these prey animals and can cause fear induced behavior that can become extremely dangerous to our animal's wellbeing and can create a very unsafe environment for the participants of the party. If you know there are dogs at the designated location of the event, all efforts must be made to secure the said dog(s) out of sight in an adequate location.
- Shoes are required for entry into the bunny zone.
- No smoking is allowed around our animals or handlers.
- All participants' hands should be washed before and after handling the bunnies. Sanitizer should not be used as it will deter the bunnies from interacting with you.

If at any time the party becomes unsafe or dangerous, we reserve the right to leave without a refund.

This is a binding contract and by signing below you are agreeing to all our policies and agree to abide by all our rules as stated in this 4-page contract. The event host is held responsible for his/her own behavior and its event attendee's behavior and ability to follow our rules.
