SOFTBALL UMPIRES NEEDED

The Northern California Umpires Association (NCUA)

is offering our 36th annual USA Softball of San Francisco Slow Pitch Softball Umpire School to be conducted on Saturday, February 6, 2027.

People interested in becoming softball officials must be required to attend classroom instruction and on the field mechanic drills.

All people who enjoy outdoors and the sport of softball are encouraged to attend. Umpires can earn approximately $100.00 (3 game set) a night.

This school is also a great opportunity for all people, including coaches and players, to understand the rules and mechanics of the game.

School registration is limited to 10 students. The cut-off date is 1/22/27.
