

Eye on Elders Privacy Statement

Your privacy is important to us at Eye on Elders. This statement explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal information when you interact with our website, www.eyeonelders.com, and our services.

1. Information We Collect

We may collect information such as your name, email address, and browsing behavior to provide you with our services and enhance your user experience.

2. How We Use Your Information

- To Provide Services: We use your information to fulfill requests, provide customer support, and improve our offerings.
- Personalization: We use data to understand how you use our services and provide a more personalized experience.
- Internal Purposes: Information is used for internal analytics and to ensure the proper functioning of our systems.

3. Sharing Your Information

- Service Providers: We may share information with trusted third-party service providers who help us deliver our services (e.g., web analytics, hosting), but only with their assurance that their privacy practices align with ours.
- Legal Requirements: We may disclose information if required by law, legal proceedings, or to protect our legal rights.
- Consent: We will not sell or share your personally identifiable information with unrelated third parties without your explicit consent.

4. Your Rights

You have the right to access, correct, or delete your personal information. You can also manage your preferences and privacy settings within your account or by contacting us.

5. Security

We implement technical and organizational measures to protect your personal information, but no method of transmission over the internet is 100% secure.

6. Updates to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new policy on this page and updating the "Last updated" date.

Disclaimer: This is a simplified example. A legally binding privacy statement must comply with relevant data protection laws and regulations. Consulting with legal professionals or using a dedicated policy generator is highly recommended to ensure compliance and proper customization for your specific needs.
