Billy learns of the Spiritual war

This is the tremendous year in which Billy discovers not only the spiritual religion, but also the destructive source which is hindering himself and fellow humans from living in peace. Billy is no undercover operative, but he knows right from wrong and where to spot a slithering snake; that's on the take. Billy has worked very hard over the years, to support his community but also future generations. However, a lot of things are not adding up with the government which Billy has been encoring his trust and those which have promised to protect peace and safety.

Billy has previously learnt from the Spiritual Religion that he indeed is a supernatural being; with capabilities and powers that are impossible to fully comprehend; considering earths currently deteriorating state. Billy knows that different religions simply choose to worship persons of ancient history and different objects of our universe. Billys no chump though, he knows that thinking even requires energy; and threw subtle frequency, his thoughts are connected to our divine "Consciousness". Billy concurs this indeed is how he knows to not commit or condone certain acts, which would disrupt his spiritual energy, but also others connected to his proximate aura. Billy is becoming very intuitive to his dynamic surroundings.

The universe sends a conscious reminder to Billy one utopias day, but this is not by coincidence; says energetic mathematics. Billy knows he is being propelled by the thoughts and actions where he is energetically situated. This form of being is what assists Billy in understanding the culprits, behind a world of deceit and udder spiritual carnage. Billy has seen with his own eyes, the destruction of his communities once peaceful energy. The creative lad knows all his energy and power comes from the planet and those who conduct and abide by our spiritual universe's natural laws of peaceful vibrational arithmetic.

Without wager Billy has identified those behind the spiritual destruction upon his species; has certainly been devised by those seeking to temporarily gain and continue sinister control. Billys not looking to wage an unnecessary war; he seeks the truth, accountability and correction.

Billy procures to see those in government office are the very source of destruction; they melted and chained the vulnerable for material gain, which would later affect all. Billy later rejected in silence; this sinister energy which lurked behind closed doors; drained us like a withering sponge in the scorching desert heat. Billy is looking to reconstruct from a war of lies and deceit. He knows peace lies within; truthful, equal, and unified energy amongst all earth's habitants.
