

Forbidden Souvenirs

OCTO CREATIVE PLANNER CO., LTD.

OCTO CREATIVE PLANNER CO., LTD. and its suppliers avoid promoting or selling souvenirs made from threatened species, as well as historic or archaeological artefacts, except where explicitly permitted by law. This commitment is implemented through guide briefings, supplier coordination, and on-tour client communication.

Guides inform clients, where appropriate, about illegal or restricted souvenirs and encourage responsible purchasing behaviour in compliance with Thai law and international conventions (e.g. CITES). This information is communicated verbally during tours and supported by a destination-specific list of forbidden souvenirs for client awareness.

Forbidden Souvenirs List – Thailand (for Client Awareness)

1. Wildlife and Animal Products (Protected or Threatened Species)

Clients should not purchase, collect, or transport items made from:

- Ivory or elephant tusks
- Turtle shell products
- Coral (raw or processed)
- Products made from protected wildlife (skins, bones, teeth, horns)
- Stuffed animals or animal parts from wild or endangered species
- Products derived from endangered marine species (e.g. seahorses)

These items are protected under Thai wildlife law and CITES and are illegal to trade or export.

2. Plants and Forest Products

- Rare, protected, or endangered plant species
- Products made from protected hardwoods without legal certification
- Wild orchids or plants collected from natural habitats

3. Historic, Archaeological, and Cultural Artefacts

- Ancient statues, Buddha images, or religious artefacts
- Archaeological objects, antiques, or cultural items removed from temples or historic sites
- Old manuscripts, inscriptions, or artefacts of cultural heritage value

Export or possession of such items is restricted or prohibited without official permission from Thai authorities.

4. Illegal or Unethical Souvenirs

- Items falsely claimed to be antique or historic
- Products involving exploitation of wildlife, children, or communities
- Items produced through illegal extraction or trade
