

"The leader must be ready when the opportunity presents itself."

-Doris Kearns-Goodwin

What do attendees have to say about PCLA?

"..I have attended a lot of leadership workshops and seminars throughout my career, but I have never enjoyed and learned from any of them as much as PCLA. The mix of speakers, topics, and format made it highly engaging, and I look forward to future workshops they have to offer. My experience with PCLA was amazing and growth promoting!"

-Razan Hamed, Ph.D.
Columbia University

"...Participating in the PCLA cohort was one of the best learning experiences I have had as a leader. The depth and breadth of the content and discussions facilitated by Drs. Chute & Nevins provided immediate and transformative value to my daily work."

-Jeff Adams, Ed.D.
Arkansas State Department of Education

"...The Propelling Careers Leadership Academy offered the opportunity for stimulating discussion, learning new concepts and ideals and much more. Enlightenment, camaraderie, and reflection are just a few words to describe my experience. I highly recommend challenging yourself to engage in learning and leadership!"

-Jerrold Jackson, M.S.
University of St. Augustine for Health Professions

PROPELLING CAREERS LEADERSHIP ACADEMY (PCLA)

Contact Us

www.propellingcareers.org

admin@propellingcareers.org

(470)588-5951

@chuteandnevins

@propellingcareers

...especially designed for education and health professionals seeking to enhance their leadership and communication skills

Chute & Nevins Consulting

What is PROPEL?

Professional
Resources
Optimizing
Personal Excellence in Leadership

This five week synchronous online course is driven by real-life scenarios representing challenges in communication and leadership in the workplace. Opportunities for interaction in small and large groups provide the platform for facilitated learning. Guided discussion of experiences offers perspective to the group, assisting them via video conferencing.

Who Can Benefit From Propelling Careers Leadership Academy?

- Audiologists
- Educators
- Medical Personnel in healthcare facilities
- Nurse Practitioners
- Occupational Therapists
- Physical Therapists
- Physician Assistants
- Psychologists
- School Administrators
- Social Workers
- Speech Language Pathologists

Program Themes

- Tenets of leadership in diverse and multi-generational workplaces
- Effective communication and coaching conversations
- Leadership styles
- Personal strengths & evaluating others
- Leadership in turbulent times; networking and planning for the future

Principles of PROPEL

- Personalized approach
- Resources & recommendations
- Online follow-up
- Plotting your career path
- Evaluating growth
- Leveraging new & existing networks

Course Objectives

PCLA attendees will:

- identify personal strengths and professional goals to drive authentic leadership
- assess and confront communication challenges in disciplinary and cross-disciplinary conversations
- compare and contrast leadership styles present in health and education workplaces
- develop a personal career plan draft that identifies a path to continued learning and expansion of leadership skills
- return to the workplace and promote genuine collegiality among personnel in the health and education settings
- commit to reflection and self-care

Visit www.propellingcareers.org for session dates and application materials