

What are the Jon Peterson and Autism Scholarships?

Administered by the Ohio Department of Education, these scholarships provide funding to parents of students with special needs, covering services such as speech therapy, occupational therapy, behavioral support, and more. The scholarships allow families to choose from approved service providers, like PSI, ensuring their child receives the support that best fits their educational journey.

To learn more about the Jon Peterson Scholarship, CLICK HERE and to learn more about the Autism Scholarship CLICK HERE.