

My name is Angel Santiago Gonzalez,

I'm writing you from death row here at Union Correctional institution in Florida. I am from San Juan, Puerto Rico, 39 years old and I love to play basketball, boxing and to work out. Also, I love to write my own songs, Spanish music, and to sing and rap and I love to write Spanish poems and draw. I came to the United States in 2002 after my brother got killed and I was shot. I moved to New York City and I came to stay here in Florida in 2006. While I was living in Orlando I started to hang out with the wrong people, and I got locked up and sentence to life for violent crimes with guns. I am not a sexual predator or anything like that, then I was doing my sentence I was transferred to another prison and I was housed in the same cell with a child molester and he started talking about what he did to little kids on the street, I really lost control of my emotions and I killed him in 2014. I'm a father of 3 kids and I was thinking about them when he was talking about the nasty stuff that he did to those kids. On April 13, 2018 I was sentenced to death for a man that loved to abuse kids. In in this moment I'm fighting for my own life to be honest with you Mrs. Taylor, I lost control and for losing control I'm right here on death row. A lot of people think that I am a monster but, they don't know what I have in my heart and soul I am a loving father in a really good person which made a lot of mistakes in my life. I learned a lot and I always give good advice to my kids so they won't make the same mistakes that I've made it is really hard for my mother and my kids to see me in this that situation but I need to be strong for them and the rest of my family because they have been suffering and I really don't want them to suffer more we all make mistakes and nobody is perfect. I wish I can go back and do the right thing but it's a little bit too late now. Living behind bars waiting for the court to decide if I live or die is like living in a nightmare and to be honest this place is lonely, and we all suffer minute by minute. I do hope that you can understand me in my situation and help me to find some new friends that are willing to write me and build a strong bond with me an honest and serious sincere friendship. I can write in English and Spanish. Whoever is willing to write me and be friends with me I will respect them, and I will be super honest with them I'm always honest 0 lies or games if somebody is willing to write me, they can write me here
