

WALUSIMBI MOSES'S STORY

I am Walusimbi Moses. I was born on 17th SApril 1982 in Mafuddhu, Gomba, Bukoro District. I was bon to the Late Walimbwa John and Aidah Kalende.

I started school in 1982 but did not go far with education. I stopped in Primary Five since I had lost my parents.

I started helping builders in the village so that I can earn a living.

In 2011/ January/10th, I woke up going for work and on my way I found a man who had been killed and was besides the road. I continued with my journey and as I continued, I found people and they tried to stop me and I just by passed them and they were going where I was coming from.

When they reached the man who was killed, they said that I am the one had killed him and there I was arrested.

They took me to Police and then to Court. Court found me guilty and I was sentenced to 24 years in Luzira Upper Prison. When I reached in Luzira, I joined Carpentry in 2012 and I have 7 years experience now.

I am happy for my job since when I am released, I will continue with it in order to earn a living.
