Hi my name is Warren king I'm 43 years old black male Brown eyes black hair 57 height I'm currently on death row a pending appeals I been locked up since 18 years old I'm a person who enjoys reading writing listening to music and other views I look beyond today where I'm at now to ahead of where I could be in the near future there's a life out there for me and I like to become a part of it still in the meanwhile it takes people as a view to keep me in touch with the world movement therefore I beat the odds of becoming institutionalized learn the value of the world from you as you learn the values of the inside world for me as we do so we stay young at heart and grow with them wisdom life deeper than its physical form it's on us to touch its spirit spiritual core here our journey begins And on this journey lies what we seek there is diamond beneath the flesh and together we will discover it let's begin our journey my friend.

Sincerely,

Warren king 988200
