

LEGAL NOTICE

All contributions to SPORTS FOR EVERYBODY are used by SPORTS FOR EVERYBODY to further its charitable purposes and objectives. Contributions for a particular activity will be used for that activity, but in the rare event that unforeseen problems prevent carrying out a project as planned, the contributions for that project will be used to benefit children and families through our other programs. If more funds are received than are necessary to fund a project as planned, the excess funds will be used to benefit children and families through our other programs. Further written information concerning this or other SPORTS FOR EVERYBODY programs is available upon request.
