

Each player receives one point for each of their balls pocketed, plus three points for legally pocketing the 8-ball. A win is always worth ten points. The losing player receives one point for each of their balls pocketed during the game. A loss can never be worth more than seven points. If a player prematurely pockets the 8-ball or scratches while pocketing the 8-ball, the opponent receives ten points. The losing player receives one point for each ball of their balls pocketed during the game.
