MISSION

Providing resources to families and children in need as identified by police officers.

VISION

Engage law enforcement in community solutions.

GOALS

- Assist children and families in crisis to get back on their feet.
- Provide at-risk youth with enrichment opportunities to encourage healthy life choices.
  - Enhance public perception of law enforcement.
- Offer law enforcement the opportunity to assist with after-crisis support.

HISTORY

- Founded in 2009 by Jacqui MacConnell, a Lieutenant (now retired) in the Phoenix Police Department.
- Inspired by over a decade of police work, and experiences with children and families in crisis.
- Began as a donor-advised fund of the Arizona Foundation for Women; became a 501c3 in 2011.
- Started with City of Phoenix Police Department – expanded to serve Tempe Police Department in July 2012, Mesa and Glendale Police Departments in 2016, and the west valley in 2017.

SERVICES

- Crisis Response Services for families with minor children in need identified by police officers. Services can include, but are not limited to, rental, utility, food or clothing assistance.
- Youth Enrichment Program opportunities for at-risk youth also identified by police officers. Enrichment opportunities can include academic, athletic, arts related or recreational opportunities for youth who face economic challenges that limit their opportunities to experience activities that will take them out of their environments and expose them to a world of possibilities.
