

Securetex Pty Ltd Terms and Conditions

These terms and conditions ("Terms") govern the use of services provided by Securetex Pty Ltd ("Securetex," "we," "us," or "our"), a security business specializing in security system installation and related services. By providing written consent, entering into a verbal agreement, accepting via email, or submitting an acceptance form, the client ("you," "your," or "client") agree to be bound by these Terms. It is essential that you read and understand these Terms before engaging our services.

1. Service Acceptance:

1.1. By providing written consent, entering into a verbal agreement, accepting via email, or submitting an acceptance form, you agree to be bound by these Terms and Conditions.

2. Services Provided:

2.1. Securetex offers security system installation, maintenance, and related services as agreed upon in writing or verbally.

3. Liability:

3.1. Securetex shall not be liable for any financial loss, property loss, loss of earnings, damage, or any other direct, indirect, incidental, special, or consequential damages arising from the use or inability to use our services or products.

3.2. The client acknowledges that security systems and related equipment may not be infallible and that Securetex cannot guarantee the prevention of all security breaches, damages, or losses.

4. Installation and Maintenance:

4.1. Securetex will make every reasonable effort to install and maintain security systems according to industry standards and best practices. However, the client understands that unforeseen circumstances may arise, leading to potential delays or variations in the installation process.

4.2. The client agrees to provide accurate and timely information to Securetex regarding property layout, access, and other relevant details necessary for the proper installation and maintenance of security systems.

5. Warranty:

5.1. Securetex provides a limited warranty for installed equipment and services. The terms and coverage of the warranty will be outlined in a separate warranty document provided to the client upon completion of installation.

6. Payment:

6.1. Payment for services shall be made according to the agreed-upon terms. Failure to make payments on time may result in suspension of services or additional fees.

7. Termination:

7.1. Either party may terminate the services provided by Securetex with written notice. Termination terms and conditions will be outlined in the initial service agreement.

8. Governing Law:

8.1. These Terms and any disputes arising from or in connection with them shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the jurisdiction in which Securetex operates.

9. Entire Agreement:

9.1. These Terms constitute the entire agreement between Securetex and the client concerning the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings, negotiations, and discussions, whether oral or written.

10. Amendments:

10.1. Securetex reserves the right to modify or amend these Terms at any time. Changes will be effective upon posting the updated Terms on our website or providing written notice to the client.

By providing the aforementioned forms of acceptance, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and agreed to the Securetex Pty Ltd Terms and Conditions. If you do not agree with any part of these Terms, please do not proceed with our services.
