Randy's Thought of the Quarter

What a crazy world it's been! The Chiefs won the Super Bowl! Shortly after, we were introduced to Covid19 and the world went crazy again! People had to miss work, family getting together for events as important as funerals and weddings were halted. Churches were closed along with stores and restaurants. We won't even mention the Presidential Election, because it wasn't really that presidential! So! Here's an idea for ya! Have a party! Buy everyone in your family a bubble ball! Put on the bubble balls and go knock the crap out of each other! Bam!
