Winter Solstice

The first day of winter is December 21st, 2022. The solstice occurs when the sun sets to the farthest southern point of the year. The solstice means that on December 21st, it will be the shortest day of 2022 in the northern hemisphere. In the southern hemisphere the sun stays above the horizon for longer. This is known as the first day of summer.

The Flight Before Christmas Movie

Niko, a young reindeer, is the main character of this movie. He is told by his mother that his father is a part of the flying forces. Flying forces is a reindeer team that works for Santa Claus. The reindeers have been flying for Santa for years. Niko has dreamed of finding his father, and joining him on the team. Niko really wanted to meet his father so badly. Nico has a flying squirrel named Julius to keep an eye on him. This movie is so cute for all ages and it's a Christmas story. The wolf pack wanted to take over Christmas town but that did not happen. Instead Nico and the flying forces team saved the day

Eldin Ring

By Mudabrand0

I have been playing a super challenging but rewarding game recently. It's called Elden Ring, Elden Ring is a video game for PS5, PS4, Xbox Series S/X, Xbox One, and PC. Elden Ring was developed by the company FromSoftware known for making the popular Dark Souls series and Bloodborne and Sekiro. Fromsoft games are known for being notoriously difficult and punishing but also super rewarding. Elden Ring was directed by Hidetaka Miyazaki with the world of the game being created by the famed writer of Game of Thrones George R. R. Martin. Elden Ring takes place in The Lands Between where your character called the Tarnished by the characters in game and created entirely by you fights to become Elden Lord against many types of enemies from normal humans to crazy inhuman monsters, animals, and even demi-gods! I love this game and have been enjoying it immensely and it might currently be my game of 2022! I give this game a 9/10!

Christmas is My Favorite Holiday

By Matt V.

Christmas is my favorite holiday. What I like about Christmas is getting gifts, spending time with family, and having off from school and work. My favorite gifts that I have gotten were two family guy dvds such as the Complete season 15 dvd and the Freakin Sweet Family Guy collection. I also got hot wheels cars, matchbox cars, my airpods, and amazon gift cards. Another thing I like about Christmas is when I get to go to Florida to see my grandma, my aunts, my uncles, and cousins. I love spending time with them whenever I visit them for the holidays. I also like how I get to wear my pajamas when I wake up in the morning. Overall, Christmas is my favorite holiday of all time because I love spending genuine time with my family.
