Artist Spotlight

The artist of the month for May is Alex! He can be seen here displaying a picture he drew during the Learning and Social Development lesson on Whales. What a creative way to connect to the lesson! We think he did a whale of a good job.

Thanks, Alex!

Words Of Wisdom

By Kyle

Someday and soon
I'll make you proud of your boy
Though I can't make myself taller
Or smarter or handsome or wise

I'll do my best, what else can I do?
Since I wasn't born perfect like dad or you

The song I chose is "Proud of Your Boy" by lyricist Howard Ashman originally made for 1992's Aladdin but appeared in the Broadway version. I chose this song as it's a good reminder for Mother's day.

This verse makes me feel thankful for my mother, as I'm always wanting to improve for others, despite my limitations. Maybe this song can help make your mom proud of you.

History of May

By Josh

May is full of many events. Some of these include:

May 5th is Cinco de Mayo. This day celebrates the victory of the Mexican army over the french army at the battle of Puebla in 1862. There are some ways to celebrate it like making Mexican food, going out to a Mexican restaurant, going to a parade or dressing up.

May 14th is Mother's Day. Don't forget to have something planned to show appreciation for your mother. There are many nice things you can do for your mother for Mother's day. Some ideas include making a card, buying flowers or taking her out to dinner.

May 29th is Memorial day It's a tradition to raise the flag on the flag, did you also the start of summer where people open up pools and begin celebrating outside.

So whatever you celebrate, May should sound fun for you!

Celebrate Mother's Day Every Day

By Cameron

Make Mother's Day everyday. My mom is the nicest person in the whole white world. So I'm all grown up now and I still sometimes have my share of problems with my parents but I like going out to dinner with my mom and watching movies with my mom

There can be many ways to celebrate Mother's Day. My way of celebrating is that I will be getting her a Mothers day card and a present she does like Wine and Champagne. Maybe I can get her that.

Other ways to celebrate could be doing something nice for your mother include doing a DIY project, making breakfast for her, or even just spending the whole day with her.

Hope you can help show your mother some great appreciation for all she provides to make you a great person today!
