REVOLUTIONIZING THE WAY AUTISTIC ADULTS LEARN, LIVE AND WORK

The Nicholas Center (TNC) supports Autistic individuals to learn critical life skills, improve social and communication abilities, gain meaningful vocational training and engage in community projects. With a focus on inclusive employment, The Nicholas Center offers a Supported Employment Program offering on-the-job experiences and paid employment — currently supporting 43 individuals in 23 community businesses — and has created micro-businesses, including the TNC Chocolate Lab to offer more vocational opportunities.
