Missionaries of the Week
Ole & Renee Konnerup
Harold & Shawne Ebersole

Ole and Renee Konnerup – serving in Kenya as church planters. They have been in the states dealing with medical conditions – Renee is finishing up therapy for knee replacement. They are returning to Kenya to continue working with a local church plant to help them grow into a church that can reach its community. Please pray for their health and opportunities to continue to see churches in Kenya grow.

Harold and Shawne Ebersole – serving Bangladesh while in the states. Herold is still dealing with lymphoma and other health issues. While in the states they conduct training via the internet, along with meetings with staff in country. They publish literature for the reading program, and continue translation activities. Please pray for improved health and for more staff for the hospital in Bangladesh that provides health care for all. They are always in need of professional staff.
