Copy Certification

If no other copy certification wording is prescribed, this certificate may be used by Notaries to certify true copies of original documents — if state law so allows.

The Notary must carefully compare the copy that is being certified to the original, and, whenever possible, personally make the copy. The original should not be a public record nor a publicly recordable document, such as a birth certificate or deed.

The optional section at the bottom can deter alteration of the document or fraudulent reattachment of this form to an unintended document.
