

Southwest Flight Center Flight Review Quiz

I. Review of FAR Part 61 and 91

1. Your _____ and _____ certificates must be in your possession when flying as pilot in command. 61.5
2. A third class medical certificate received before your 40th birthday expires _____ months after the date issued. A third class medical received on or after your 40th birthday expires _____ months after the date issued. 61.23
3. A Flight Review must be accomplished within the preceding _____ months in order for you to legally act as pilot in command. 61.56
4. In order to carry passengers, you must have made _____ takeoffs and landings as sole manipulator of the controls in an aircraft of the same category and class within the preceding _____ days. For night flight the three landings must be made to a _____. 61.57
5. You must notify the FAA within _____ days after a permanent change of your mailing address in order to exercise the privileges of your certificate. 61.60
6. Who is responsible for determining whether an aircraft is in an airworthy condition? _____ . 91.7
7. You may not act as a crewmember of a civil aircraft within _____ hours after the consumption of an alcoholic beverage. 91.17
8. As pilot in command, in addition to familiarizing yourself with all available information concerning any flight, you are specifically required to determine _____ and _____. For a flight not in the vicinity of the airport you must also check _____, _____, _____, and _____. 91.103
9. As pilot in command you are required to ensure that each person on board occupies a seat with a _____. 91.107
10. True or False: during landing, the aircraft at the lower altitude has the right of way over aircraft at a higher altitude? _____ 91.113
11. Over congested areas, you may not operate an aircraft below _____ AGL. 91.119
12. When flying cross-country, how should you set your altimeter? _____ . 91.121
13. True or False: you may not under any circumstances deviate from an ATC clearance unless you obtain an amended clearance? _____ 91.123

Southwest Flight Center Flight Review Quiz

14. ATC light signals have the following meanings: 91.125
- | | on the ground | in flight |
|------------------------------|---------------|-----------|
| a) steady green | _____ | _____ |
| b) flashing green | _____ | _____ |
| c) steady red | _____ | _____ |
| d) flashing red | _____ | _____ |
| e) alternating red and green | _____ | _____ |
15. Describe how you would make an approach and landing when approaching to land at an airport without an operating control tower. _____ 91.127
16. True or False: you must maintain two-way radio communication when operating in Class D Airspace where the tower is operated by the U.S. Government? _____ 91.129
17. When approaching to land on a runway equipped with VASI, you must _____ 91.129
18. True or False: an appropriate ATC clearance is required for operation on a taxiway, as well as a runway, at an airport with an operating control tower? _____ 91.129
19. In order to operate an aircraft within Class B Airspace the following equipment must be on board: a) _____ b) _____. 91.131
20. True or False: you may operate an aircraft within restricted airspace under certain condition? _____ 91.133
21. You may not begin a flight under VFR conditions unless you have sufficient fuel, assuming normal cruise, to fly to your first point of intended landing plus _____ minutes day and _____ minutes night. 91.151
22. Within Class E Airspace above 1200 ft. AGL and below 10,000 ft. MSL, the basic VFR weather minimums are _____. 91.155
23. Above 10,000 ft. MSL the weather minimums are _____. 91.155
24. The altitude you should fly during VFR cross-country flight when cruising above 3,000 ft. AGL and below 18,000 ft. MSL is _____. 91.159
25. You are required to have the following documents in the aircraft during flight: a) _____ b) _____. 91.203
26. The ELT battery must be replaced after _____ or _____. 91.207

Southwest Flight Center Flight Review Quiz

27. Aircraft position lights must be displayed from _____ to _____. 91.209
28. In order to legally operate your airplane above 10,000 ft. MSL you must have an operable _____. 91.215
29. True or False: acrobatic flight is permitted within a federal airway and below 1500 ft. AGL providing reasonable caution is exercised? _____ 91.303
30. You may not legally operate an aircraft unless it has had an inspection within the preceding _____ months. 91.409
31. Should you be involved in an aircraft accident, you could determine if it was reportable by consulting _____.

II. Airspace and Operating Procedures (see sectional chart and AIM)

1. The dimensions of Class D Airspace are:
_____.
2. How is Class D Airspace depicted on the sectional chart?
_____.
3. When is Class D Airspace in effect?
_____.
4. How is Class C Airspace depicted on the sectional?
_____.
5. True or False: prior to entering Class C Airspace you are required to contact the appropriate ATC? _____
6. How is Class B Airspace depicted on the sectional chart and what is the floor and ceiling over Scottsdale Airport?
_____.
7. What is the purpose of Class E Airspace?
_____.
8. Controlled airspace is depicted on the sectional chart in two colors. What are they and what is the floor of each?
_____.
9. True or False: You may enter an MOA during VFR flight? _____

Southwest Flight Center Flight Review Quiz

10. If your aircraft is equipped with a transponder, unless otherwise directed by ATC, you should squawk _____ when flying VFR. The emergency squawk is _____.
11. What is Flight Watch? _____
12. The Flight Watch frequency is _____.
13. Unless otherwise published, the FAA recommends a pattern altitude of _____ ft. AGL at uncontrolled airports.
14. What is the meaning of these VASI light combinations?
- a) all white _____
 - b) red over white _____
 - c) all red _____
15. When landing behind a heavy jet aircraft, you should
- _____
- _____

III. Questions pertaining to specific aircraft – as assigned by the flight instructor