Re: Securities and Exchange Commission v. Kevin B. Merrill, et al., Case No. 1:18-cv-02844-RDB in the United States District Court for the District of Maryland

Dear Customer:

Please be advised that this law firm represents Receiver Gregory S. Milligan, of the firm Harney Management Partners, LLC (the “Receiver”), in the above-referenced action (the “Receivership Action”). This letter is notice of certain Orders that were entered in the Receivership Action that vested the Receiver with the authority to manage and maintain the business operations of the Receivership Parties, which includes DeVille Asset Management Ltd. (“DeVille”).

Specifically, on September 13, 2018, the Court in the Receivership Action entered a Temporary Restraining Order Freezing Assets and Granting Other Emergency Relief (Doc. No. 9) (the “TRO”) and an Order Appointing Temporary Receiver (Doc. No. 11) (the “Receivership Order”), and on October 4, 2018 the Court entered a Preliminary Injunction Order, Freezing Assets, and Granting Other Relief (Doc. No. 28) (the “Preliminary Injunction”). Copies of the TRO, Receivership Order, and Preliminary Injunction are available if you would like a copy of these documents for your records.

You are receiving this letter because your debt was purchased by DeVille from your original lender. The Receiver is continuing to operate DeVille in its ordinary course of business, which includes the collection of your debt. The Receiver is operating under and with the authority granted to him by the United States District Court for the District of Maryland.

Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely,

Lynn Hamilton Butler
