A Word from Our Pastor

Welcome to The Gathering Place. Are you ready for anything? The Apostle Paul said, “I have strength for all things through Christ who empowers me” (Philippians 4:13). What he is saying is, “I am ready for anything. I am equal to anything the enemy comes against me with. Paul had been shipwrecked, gone days without food, falsely accused, beaten with rods, and thrown in prison. He could have been bitter, jaded, gotten down and feeling defeated. But not Paul. His attitude was, I can handle it. I am ready for whatever comes. How could he say this? Because he knew the Almighty God, the ruler and creator of the universe had infused him with strength. He knew that God had equipped him, empowered him, anointed him, crowned him with favor, and called him to reign in life. It was because of those facts, that Paul was ready for anything. The same can be said for you. You may feel weak, but God has given you strength for all things through Christ who has empowered you!

Worship Song List

Days of Elijah

Verse 1:

These are the days of Elijah,
Declaring the Word of the Lord.
And these are the days of your servant, Moses,
Righteousness being restored.
And though these are days of great trials,
Of famine, and darkness, and sword.
Still we are Your voice in the desert crying,
Prepare Ye the way of the Lord!

Chorus:

Behold He comes, riding on the clouds,
Shining like the sun, at the trumpet sound.
So, lift your voice, it's the year of jubilee,
And out of Zion's hill salvation comes.

Verse 2:

And these are the days of Ezekiel,
The dry bones becoming as flesh.
And these are the days of your servant, David,
Rebuilding the temple of praise.
And these are the days of the harvest,
The fields are as white in the world.
And we are the laborers in Your vineyard,
Declaring the Word of the Lord.

Bridge:

There's no God like Jehovah,
There's no God like Jehovah,
There's no God Like Jehovah,
There's no God like Jehovah.

Building a Healthy Church

(Part Two)

Text: Proverbs 27:23

Intro: The church in Ephesus was a powerful ministry. They had strong leaders, a powerful vision, and a significant location that would allow them to accomplish great and mighty things for the kingdom of God. It was a church on fire, and it is easy to determine when something is aflame. It ignites other material. Any fire that does not spread will eventually go out. A church without evangelism is a contradiction in terms, just as a fire that does not burn is a contradiction.
