

Liberty S.O.S.

James Wiley, Republican Candidate Colorado Secretary of State

Resignation from the Libertarian Party and Announcement of Republican Candidacy

To the Libertarian National Committee, Libertarians Generally, and Humanity at-Large,

I am formally resigning my membership in the Libertarian Party of Colorado and Role as Alternate Region One Representative to the Libertarian National Committee, effective immediately, and announce the Republican affiliation of my campaign for Secretary of State. This decision is not a rejection of libertarian principles—which have shaped my worldview and fueled my anti-machine activism—but a pragmatic response to the existential threats facing human liberty from election machines.

As we stand on the brink of irreversible tyranny from vulnerable electronic voting machines, I lack the time to nurture a third party into a viable vehicle to achieve human liberty. The Libertarian Party, though purpose-built for liberty, operates on the margins and struggles to gain the traction needed for swift, statewide impact. To truly advance liberty a candidate for Secretary of State must focus on decertifying compromised machines, freeing whistleblower Tina Peters, and securing our state records on the blockchain. I will regenerate the Republican Party to accomplish these purposes. By joining its ranks, I can push it toward embracing transparency, voting rights, and election integrity, while leveraging its resources to ignite human action.

I remain grateful for the Libertarian Party's role in my journey and encourage unaffiliated voters to join its ranks before January 18th, 2026 for strategic purposes. I urge them to vote NOTA (None of the Above) on nominations for Secretary of State, Attorney General, and Treasurer candidates at the April 2026 Colorado Libertarian Assembly. This tactic avoids spoilers that could fracture the human liberty coalition, ultimately helping promising libertarian Republicans like myself secure victories and advance our shared goals, including justice for Tina Peters.

Thank you for the opportunities and camaraderie. I wish the Libertarian Party continued success in championing liberty, and I look forward to our ongoing collaboration.

I will be back,

James Wiley

The Red Flame of Liberty

Republican Candidate for Colorado Secretary of State

libertysos.co