

Hereford Development Centre

Code of Conduct

Parent/Guardians, spectators and players are asked to read and comply with the club's code of conduct before completing the on-line registration document. It is important that all participants understand their roles and responsibilities and understand the consequences of failing to comply.

Hereford Development Centre has discussed and agreed Codes of Conduct for all members, including Players, Managers, Coaches and Parents, in line with Football Association (FA) guidance. Please take the content in the right spirit and be supportive in all aspects of the club. Primarily, the children of the club are our most important asset, and all our efforts revolve around them.

Remember, football is a time for players to develop their technical, physical, tactical, and social skills. Winning isn't everything. Everyone needs to play their part and observe the FA's Respect Code of Conduct.

Our club has three main responsibilities around the Codes:

1. To ensure everyone within the club (club members), whatever their role, has read, agreed and signed up to the Code of Code, read our policies and procedures and understands the actions which could be taken if these are broken. The inclusion of the Code of Conduct and policies and procedures into the registration process of club members ensures that all playing members can be made aware of their responsibilities at the point of joining the club.
2. To review and retain the Code of conduct so that they can be referred to if an individual's behaviour becomes unacceptable.
3. To deal fairly and consistently with anyone who breaks the Code of Conduct or Policies.

Code of Conduct for Players

On and off the field, I will:

- Always play to the best of my ability and for the benefit of my team
- Play fairly – I won't cheat, dive, complain or waste time
- Respect my team-mates, the other team, the referee or my coach/team manager
- Play by the rules, as directed by the referee
- Be gracious in victory and defeat – I will shake hands with the other team and referee at the end of the game
- Listen and respond to what my coach/team manager tells me
- Understand that a coach/team manager must do what is best for the team and not one individual player
- Talk to someone I trust or the club welfare officer if I'm unhappy about anything at my club

I understand that if I do not follow the Code, any/ or all the following actions may be taken by my club, County FA or the FA: I may:

- Be required to apologise to my team-mates, the other team, referee or team manager
- Issued with a verbal or written warning from a club or league official
- Required to meet with the club, league or CFA Welfare Officer
- Obligated to leave the match venue by the club
- Requested by the club not to attend future games or training sessions
- Required to leave by the club, suspended, receive a fine by the county FA or have my club membership removed.

In addition:

- My club, County FA or The FA may make my parent or carer aware of any infringements of the Code of Conduct
- The FA/County FA could impose a fine and suspension against my club
- The FA believes that Referees and Assistant Referees should be able to officiate free from the threat of violence or intimidation. Any physical assault on a Match Official may result in a lengthy or permanent exclusion from football and possibly a criminal prosecution
