

Republic of the Philippines
Office of the President
Philippine Sports Commission

Dear

Greetings from the Philippine Sports Commission!

In line with our mandate to encourage sports programs, league competitions, and amateur sports programs including training for international competition; and the President’s directive to further the development of sports in the country, giving emphasis on the grassroots, we are pleased to once again invite you to one of the Commission’s flagship events, the Philippine Youth Games – Batang Pinoy 2019. Declared as the National Sports Development Program for Children through Executive Order No. 44 and a National Community Sports Program through Executive Order No. 79, the Philippine Youth Games – Batang Pinoy, has been an integral part of the national policy and program for sports development that effectively addresses our need for a comprehensive grassroots sports program centered on values formation inherent in the practice of sports and play.

With this, the Commission is requesting once again your unwavering support and active participation for the PHILIPPINE YOUTH GAMES – BATANG PINOY 2019, with the schedule as follows:

Luzon	16-23 March	Ilagan, Isabela
Visayas	23 Feb - 02 March	TBA
Mindanao	02-09 February	Tagum City, Davao del Norte
