10 C. FACTS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

11 11. In or around 2009, Plaintiff met LeClair during a retirement planning and financial 12 advisory program organized by LeClair at Mitchell Elementary School, where Plaintiff worked as 13 a schoolteacher.

14 12. In or around 2009, Plaintiff hired LeClair as her financial advisor.

15 13. On or about September 30, 2013, Plaintiff agreed to loan LeClair the sum of 16 $40,000.00 pursuant to a written "Personal Loan for Profit" agreement (the "September
17 Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the September Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit
18 "1."

19 14. Under the September Agreement, LeClair was required to pay the entire loan amount
20 within eight (8) months (i.e., by May 31, 2014).

21 15. Additionally, under the September Agreement LeClair assumed responsibility for the 22 entire monthly payment due on Plaintiff's Nationwide Insurance ("Nationwide") home equity line
23 of credit ("HELOC"), and "the entire funds/debt used by" Plaintiff for college tuition, up to, but 24 not more than $75,000 of total funds used from HELOC, until the contracted Personal Loan for 25 Profit and total interest is paid to" Plaintiff.

26 16. Pursuant to the September Agreement, Plaintiff transferred $40,000.00 by wire
27 transfer to the account of 4N1 as follows: $10,000.00 on September 20, 2013; $6,000.00 on 28 October 8, 2013; and $24,000.00 on November 5, 2013.

1 17. In December 2013, LeClair requested, and Plaintiff agreed to provide him with, an
2 additional loan of $9,000.00 pursuant to a second written "Personal Loan for Profit" agreement
3 dated December 31, 2013 (the "December Agreement"). A true and correct copy of the December
4 Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit "2."

5 18. The December Agreement was referenced as an "amended" agreement and
6 incorporated terms of the September Agreement, including the terms described in Paragraph 15
7 hereinabove. Under the December Agreement, LeClair was required to pay the entire loan amount
8 within eight (8) months (i.e., by August 31, 2014).

9 19. Pursuant to the December Agreement, Plaintiff transferred the sum of $9,000.00 by 10 wire transfer to the account of 4N1 on December 12, 2013.

11 20. Subsequently, in 2014 Plaintiff agreed to provide LeClair with additional loans of 12 $20,000.00 in total ("the 2014 Agreement"); this was a verbal agreement, made on the same terms
13 as the September Agreement and December Agreement.

14 21. Pursuant to the 2014 Agreement, on or about February 22, 2014 and July 28, 2014
15 respectively, Plaintiff transferred two sums of $10,000.00 each by wire transfer to the account of 16 4N1. This additional loan of $20,000.00, which was made on the same material terms as the 17 written September Agreement and December Agreement, brought the total loan disbursements by 18 Plaintiff to LeClair ("the Loans") to $69,000.00.

19 22. Defendants have made a total of ten (10) payments to Plaintiff totaling $3,707.30, in 20 partial repayment of amounts loaned under the September Agreement, the December Agreement
21 and the 2014 Agreement (together, the "Agreements"), as follows:

1 23. The Loans were due in full not later than eight (8) months after the last disbursement
2 on July 28, 2014. Accordingly, the Loans were due in full by March 28, 2015.

3 24. On or about April 17, 2015, LeClair tendered a check ostensibly in partial payment of
4 the Loans, in the amount of $1,014.78. Plaintiff deposited said check on April 22, 2015. On April
5 24, 2015, the check was dishonored for insufficient funds (“NSF”), and Plaintiff’s account was 6 charged a returned item fee of $29.00. The NSF check has not been replaced. A true and correct
7 copy of the returned check for April 2015 is attached hereto as Exhibit “5.”

8 25. Plaintiff has made verbal and written (text message) demand for payment of all sums
9 due. Defendants have not made a payment in good funds since January 23, 2015.

10 26. The total interest charges to the HELOC from September 30, 2013 to July 31 2015
11 are approximately $8,670.00. Defendants now owes at least $4,958.00 ($8,770.00 owed - 12 $3,707.30 paid) in interest charges alone to Plaintiff – with monthly interest charges continuing to 13 accrue.

14 27. Defendant LeClair has failed to meet his loan repayment obligations to Plaintiff after 15 January 2015, despite Plaintiff’s payment demands. Defendant LeClair has only made one
16 payment since January 2015, which was returned for insufficient funds. Defendant has since
17 ignored Plaintiff’s attempts to contact him regarding the loan payments.

25 under the Agreements, including, but not limited to: (a) failing to repay loaned amounts to 26 Plaintiff within the term specified therein; (b) failing to repay the loan on the HELOC due

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Against All Defendants)

(Fraud)

31. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation of Paragraphs 1 through 30, inclusive, hereinabove, as though set forth fully herein.

32. Defendants made specific representations in the Agreements, that in the Event of Default (as defined thereunder): (1) Plaintiff can choose to place a lien against the Defendant LeClair's residence or property, currently 8721 Cherry Blossom Lane, Cornelius, NC 28031, or at such other place as LeClair may reside or personally or corporately own; and (2) the contracted loan term shall end and be repaid in full eight months from the date thereof, but that based on past loans and commission, the Plaintiff was more than likely to receive repayment of funds between six to eight months (collectively, "the Representation").

33. However, at the time of entering into the Agreements, Defendant LeClair did not own the property named in the September Agreement and December Agreements, nor did he own any other real property on which the Plaintiff could place a lien in the event of default under the Agreements.

34. Defendant LeClair acted as Plaintiff's financial advisor previously, and Plaintiff relied on this prior relationship along with these representations. Further, the written Agreements, including the express reference to his past positive loan history, were drafted by Defendant LeClair, and must be construed accordingly.

35. Defendants made the false Representations, and concealed the herein referenced material facts with the intent to induce Plaintiff to enter into the Agreements.

36. Plaintiff did not know that Representations were false, and believed them to be true. Plaintiff relied upon the Representations and therefor entered into the Agreements and made the Loans to Defendants.

1 37. Plaintiff was justified and reasonable in relying on the Representations. If Plaintiff
2 had known the true facts regarding the Representations and concealment of the material facts,
3 Plaintiff would not have entered into the Agreements.

4 38. As a direct and proximate result of the fraudulent Representations, Plaintiff has
5 suffered an injury in an amount to conform to proof at trial, but in no event less than $77,000.00.

6 39. Plaintiff is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants have 7 acted with oppression, fraud, and/or malice, and have deliberately caused and have intended to 8 cause great economic harm to Plaintiff with full knowledge of the wrongfulness of their conduct.
9 Plaintiff is further informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that Defendants' conduct as 10 alleged above was despicable, was carried on by with a willful and conscious disregard of 11 Plaintiff's rights, and subjected Plaintiff to unjust hardship. Therefore, Plaintiff should be awarded
12 punitive and exemplary damages sufficient to punish Defendants for engaging in this conduct and 13 to deter similar conduct on their part in the future.

14 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

15 (Against Defendant LeClair)

16 (Breach of Fiduciary Duty)

17 40. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation of
18 Paragraphs 1 through 39 inclusive, hereinabove, as though set forth fully herein.

19 42. As Plaintiff's financial advisor, Defendant LeClair was in a fiduciary relationship
20 with Plaintiff and owed fiduciary duties to Plaintiff.

21 43. Defendant LeClair used his position of trust as Plaintiff's financial advisor to gain
22 access to Plaintiff's funds and induced her to execute the Agreements.

23 44. Defendant breached his fiduciary duties when he induced Plaintiff to execute the 24 Agreements and failed to repay the loans, thereafter causing great financial hardship to Plaintiff

25 45. As a direct and proximate result of the Representations, Plaintiff has suffered 26 damages in an amount to conform to proof at trial, but in no event less than $77,000.00, or the 27 jurisdictional minimum.

28 ///

1 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

2 (Against All Defendants)

3 (Negligent Misrepresentation)

4 46. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation of
5 Paragraphs 1 through 45, inclusive, hereinabove, as though set forth fully herein.

6 47. In making the Representations, Defendants had no reasonable grounds to believe the 7 Representations were true, but nevertheless made the Representations with the intent to induce
8 Plaintiff to enter into the Agreements.

9 48. Plaintiff did not know that the Representations were in fact false, and Plaintiff
10 believed them to be true.

11 49. Plaintiff reasonably relied upon the Representation, and entered into the Agreements
12 as a proximate result thereof.

13 50. As a direct and proximate result of the Representations, Plaintiff has suffered damage
14 in an amount to conform to proof at trial, but in no event less than $77,000.00, or the jurisdictional
15 minimum.

16 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

17 (Against All Defendants)

18 (Unjust Enrichment)

19 51. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates by reference each and every allegation of
20 Paragraphs 1 through 50, inclusive, hereinabove, as though set forth fully herein.

21 52. Plaintiff entered into under the Agreements with the expectation that: (1) Defendant
22 LeClair would pay the entire loan interest amount monthly on the HELOC, on behalf of Plaintiff;
23 (2) Defendant LeClair would assume responsibility for the entire monthly payment due on the 24 HELOC, and the entire funds/debt used by Plaintiff for college tuition, up to $75,000.00 of total
25 funds used from HELOC, until the loans and total interest was paid to Plaintiff; and (3) the 26 contracted loan would be repaid in full 8 months from the date of each respective Agreement, but
27 that based on past loans and commission, the Plaintiff was more than likely to receive repayment
28 of funds between six to eight months.

1 value due and unpaid despite Plaintiff's demand, plus attorney's fees and prepaid prejudgment
2 interest.

3 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

4 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against Defendants as follows:

- 5 1. For a judgment in favor of Plaintiff on all causes of action asserted herein;
6 2. For an award of general, specific, and punitive damages as Plaintiff shall establish at 7 trial;
8 3. For restitution of all amounts paid to Defendants;
9 4. For all fees and costs, including attorney's fees, allowed by law or by the 10 Agreements;
11 5. For all pre-judgment and post-judgment interest allowed by law or contract on all
12 damages, fees and costs awarded to Plaintiff; and 13 6. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
