7 alleges that at all times herein mentioned there has been a unity of interest and ownership
8 between Defendants such that any individuality and separateness between Defendants has 9 ceased to exist. Plaintiff is also informed and believes and based on such information and 10 belief alleges that at all times herein mentioned there was such a unity of interest between 11 Defendants because Defendants have used and continue to use their control and 12 domination of the Defendant entities to, inter alia: (a) commingle funds between 13 Defendants; (b) divert funds and other assets from Defendants for the personal use of 14 Seward, Soref and Foulk; (c) fail to maintain, or adequately maintain, minutes and other 15 corporate records; (d) fail to maintain corporate legal formalities; (e) avoid liability for 16 their management and control of the Defendant entities; (f) use Defendants as mere 17 “shells” and “shams” for the purposes of systematically and unjustly enriching themselves
18 at the expense of the investors; and (g) commit violations of the Corporate Securities Law
19 and other wrongful acts against the investors.
20

21 14. Seward formed and operated Protégé Financial from at least April 2004 to 22 the present. Foulk is or was Protégé Financial’s vice president. Protégé Financial is or was 23 purportedly “one of the largest senior planning companies in the nation and they [sic]
24 advise seniors across the country.” Protégé Financial is an insurance broker licensed by 25 the California Department of Insurance, license number OF56545.
26

27 15. Seward formed and operated Saxe-Coburg from at least August 2009 to the 28

1 present. Foulk is or was Saxe-Coburg's vice president. Saxe-Coburg, represented as "a
2 boutique insurance agency with over 18 years' experience and was built with the sole
3 purpose of helping clients meet their sophisticated insurance and financial needs. By 4 providing high quality financial services, truly educating and caring for our clients we can 5 set up their financial future." Saxe-Coburg is an insurance broker licensed by the 6 California Department of Insurance license number OG87184.

7
8 16. Skyline Pictures is or was Not Forgotten's and Windsor Picture's "producing 9 partner." According to its promotional materials, Skyline Pictures' "business model
10 employs proven financing and distribution strategies designed to minimize monetary risk
11 while increasing upside profit potential."

12
13 17. Not Forgotten raised capital from investors to fund the production of an 14 independent motion picture entitled "Not Forgotten," starring Simon Baker and Paz Vega.
15 "Not Forgotten" is described in its promotional materials as a "classic psychological
16 thriller about a man and his wife who must come to terms with their tortured past in order
17 to save their kidnapped daughter." According to a letter Protégé Financial sent to investors
18 dated on or about September 8, 2011, "Not Forgotten" failed to generate any revenue.

19
20 18. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges Windsor Pictures was 21 formed and opened from at least June 2009 to the present. Windsor Pictures is or was "a 22 subsidiary and a film fund of Skyline Pictures designed to produce highly successful, 23 award winning motion pictures for the worldwide markets, at a price."

24
25 19. Since in or about at least November 2006, and continuing thereafter,
26 Defendants, their agents, representatives and affiliates have engaged in and continue to 27 engage in business in the State of California in violation of the Corporate Securities Law.

1 These violations consist of offering and selling unqualified, not-exempt securities to
2 member of the public by means of fraud and conducting unlicensed investment adviser
3 activities.

4
5 20. Beginning in or about at least November 2006, and continuing thereafter,
6 Defendants offered and sold unqualified, non-exempt securities in this State in the form of 7 Not Forgotten "operating" agreements; Windsor Pictures "bridge" loans, "promissory"
8 notes, "Class A Membership" interests, and "convertible" debentures; Protégé Financial 9 "bridge" loans and "promissory" notes; and Saxe-Coburg "promissory" notes in issuer
10 transactions by means of fraud, totaling in excess of $23.2 million in approximately 215
11 transactions to known investors.

12
13 21. Defendants specifically targeted unsophisticated investors when offering and 14 selling the above-described securities. In many instances investors, plaintiff included,
15 entrusted their entire life savings to the Defendants with the hopes of earning substantial 16 returns to protect them during their golden years, and to cover necessary expenses such as 17 food, housing and medical care.

18
19 22. Defendants promised investors high rates of return on the above-described 20 securities, ranging from at least 8 to 16 percent per annum. Defendants told investors that 21 they could either opt to "accrue" monthly interest on their investment funds or receive 22 regular monthly interest payments or "preferred" returns.

23
25 23. In or about August 2001, Defendants abruptly stopped paying investors their 26 regular monthly interest payments or preferred returns.

27
28 24. At no time herein were any of the Defendants licensed by the Commissioner

1 as investor advisers to conduct business as an investment adviser in this state, nor were any
2 of the Defendants exempt from the licensing requirements set forth in the Corporate
3 Securities Law.

4
5 25. In offering and selling these securities, Defendants represented to potential
6 and actual investors that the money raised by the sale of securities would be used to finance
7 and produce various entertainment projects, including the development and production of 8 independent motion pictures, such as "Not Forgotten" and a staged musical, "Twist! An 9 American Musical." However, Defendants instead engaged in a classic Ponzi scheme
10 whereby previous investors were repaid their investment principal using newer investors'
11 funds.

13 26. In order to sell the operating agreements, bridge loans, promissory notes,
14 Class A Membership interested, and convertible debentures, Defendants solicited investors
15 by means of informational seminars and by distributing promotional and offering materials 16 and other communications through the mail and in person without the offerings having 17 being qualified in the State of California.

18
19 27. During Seward's consultations with actual and potential investors, Seward
20 requested copies of the investor's financial information, including any and all insurance 21 policies, annuities, IRA account statements, retirement account statements, and stock and 22 bond portfolios/statements, and the approximate value of the investor's home. In some 23 instances, Seward would make copies of the investor's financial documents and then return 24 the documents at a second meeting, along with graphs and/or charts depicting how the 25 investor's other investments were underperforming. Seward would then tell the investor 26 how he or she could invest with her to improve the investment portfolio's performance.

03/18/2015

1 28. During these financial consultations Protégé Financial and Seward advised
2 actual and potential investors as to the advisability of investing in, purchasing or selling
3 securities including without limitation operating agreements, bridge loans, promissory
4 notes, Class A Membership interests and convertible debentures.

5
6 29. Le Clair, during Seward's consultations with actual and potential investors,
7 requested copies and in private consultation with potential clients, such as Plaintiff, of the 8 client's financial information, including any and all insurance policies, annuities, IRA
9 account statements, retirement account statements, and stock and bond
10 portfolios/statements, and the approximate value of the investor's home.

11
12 30. Defendants offered and sold operating agreements, bridge loans, promissory
13 notes, Class A Membership interests, and convertible debentures through these financial 14 consultations, as well as through other means.

15
16 31. Beginning in or about at least November 2006, defendants offered and sold
17 securities to investors in the form of Not Forgotten operating agreements. From at least 18 November 2006 to at least March 2010, at least $10.4 million worth of Not Forgotten
19 operating agreements were sold in this State in approximately 91 transactions.

20
21 32. Plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges, Not Forgotten diverted 22 and commingled investor funds. Defendants paid one investor and deposited and 23 transferred money to themselves and to entities they controlled.

24
25 33. Beginning in or about at least June 2009, Seward and Foulk offered and sold
26 securities to investors in the form of Windsor Pictures bridge loans, promissory notes,
27 Class A Membership interests and convertible debentures. From at least June 2009
28

03/18/2015

1 through a least September 2011, plaintiff is informed and believes and thereon alleges
2 millions of dollars' worth of Windsor Pictures bridge loans, promissory notes, Class A
3 Membership interests and convertible debentures were sold in this State.

4
5 34. Plaintiff further informed and believes and thereon alleges Windsor Pictures
6 diverted and commingled investor funds. Defendant paid some investors and deposited and
7 transferred money to themselves and to entities they controlled.

8
9 35. Plaintiff is informed and believes that beginning in or about at least 10 November 2009, Seward offered and sold securities to investors in the form of Saxe-
11 Coburg promissory notes. From at least November 2009 through at least August 2011,
12 Saxe-Coburg promissory notes in this State.

14 36. Defendants made numerous material misrepresentations and/or omitted to 15 disclose material facts concerning the offerings of Saxe-Coburg, on Protégé Financial, on 16 Not Forgotten and Windsor Pictures, including but not limited to:

17
18 A. Their investment funds would be used to finance, produce, distribute
19 and market "Not Forgotten," when in fact investor monies were used to pay prior investors
20 in a Ponzi scheme;

21
22 B. The interest payments or preferred returns would be made with the 23 money generated form profits, when in fact payments were made with money invested by 24 new investors in a Ponzi scheme;

25
26 C. Investors' investment principal would accrue interest;

1 D. Investors would receive regular monthly interest payments or
2 preferred returns;

3
4 E. Investors would receive a return of their investment principal at the 5 end of the investment term;

6
7 F. Failed to disclose to investors the fact that Not Forgotten paid its sales
8 agents' commissions from investor funds Not Forgotten raised. Seward received the bulk
9 of the sales commissions paid by Not Forgotten to its sales agents;

10
11 G. Omitted to inform investors of the risks associated with the investment
12 in Not Forgotten, despite the highly speculative nature of the investment;

13
14 H. Told investors that Not Forgotten was a "good investment" and that 15 they should "not worry" as their investment in Not Forgotten carried "no risk;"

16
17 I. Told investors that they would "not lose money" and that she would 18 "personally guarantee" that they would "get paid back" their investment funds in Not 19 Forgotten.

21 J. Told investors that their investment in Not Forgotten was 22 "guaranteed;"

23
24 K. Told investors that she lived in a "million dollar" home and that 25 Seward would "sell" her house before investors would "lose any money" in Not
26 Forgotten.

1 L. Told investors the Not Forgotten investment was not a Ponzi scheme.

2
3 37. The offer and sale of these securities are not exempt from the requirement of 4 qualification under section 25110.

5
6 38. Defendants offered and sold unqualified, non-exempt securities in violation
7 of section 25110 and, unless enjoined by this Court, will continue to violate section 25110.

8
9 39. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' acts and actions, plaintiff has 10 been damaged in a sum in excess of $450,000.00, plus prejudgment interest from 11 _____, at the legal rate therefore, according to proof.

23 46. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference paragraphs 1 through 45 of 24 this Complaint as though set in full herein.

25
26 47. Section 25230, subdivision (a) provides in pertinent part:

9 48. Section 25009 defines investment adviser as "any person who, for 10 compensation, engages in the business of advising others, either directly or through

13 49. Since in or about at least November 2006, and continuing thereafter,
14 defendants have engaged in the business of advising others, either directly or through

5
6
7 60. Plaintiffs re-allege and incorporate by this reference each and every
8 allegation in Paragraphs 1 through 59 of this Complaint.

9
10 61. As officers of the various corporate and partnership entities, defendant owed a

12
13 62. As a fiduciary to investors, defendants owed a duty of loyalty to refrain from 16 investors.

18 63. Defendants also had a duty of care to the investors to manage, conduct, supervise
19 and direct the business and affairs of the various entities in accordance with applicable contracts, 20 laws, rules, regulations and company by-laws. In addition, defendants had a duty of care to 21 maintain the goodwill of these entities, supervise press releases and other dissemination of

23
24 64. By engaging in the conduct described hereinabove, defendants have consistently

19
20 68. In engaging in the above-described fraudulent scheme, as hereinabove alleged,
21 defendants misappropriated and converted the assets of Plaintiff and others and for themselves.
22 As a direct cause of this conversion, without protecting those assets, plaintiff has been damaged.

23
24 69. As a result of Defendants actions, Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be

NOTICE

- Plaintiff must file this cover sheet with the first paper filed in the action or proceeding (except small claims cases or cases filed under the Probate Code, Family Code, or Welfare and Institutions Code). (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.220.) Failure to file may result in sanctions.
- File this cover sheet in addition to any cover sheet required by local court rule.
- If this case is complex under rule 3.400 et seq. of the California Rules of Court, you must serve a copy of this cover sheet on all other parties to the action or proceeding.
- Unless this is a collections case under rule 3.740 or a complex case, this cover sheet will be used for statistical purposes only.

INSTRUCTIONS ON HOW TO COMPLETE THE COVER SHEET

To Plaintiffs and Others Filing First Papers. If you are filing a first paper (for example, a complaint) in a civil case, you must complete and file, along with your first paper, the Civil Case Cover Sheet contained on page 1. This information will be used to compile statistics about the types and numbers of cases filed. You must complete items 1 through 6 on the sheet. In item 1, you must check one box for the case type that best describes the case. If the case fits both a general and a more specific type of case listed in item 1, check the more specific one. If the case has multiple causes of action, check the box that best indicates the primary cause of action. To assist you in completing the sheet, examples of the cases that belong under each case type in item 1 are provided below. A cover sheet must be filed only with your initial paper. Failure to file a cover sheet with the first paper filed in a civil case may subject a party, its counsel, or both to sanctions under rules 2.30 and 3.220 of the California Rules of Court.

To Parties in Rule 3.740 Collections Cases. A "collections case" under rule 3.740 is defined as an action for recovery of money owed in a sum stated to be certain that is not more than $25,000, exclusive of interest and attorney's fees, arising from a transaction in which property, services, or money was acquired on credit. A collections case does not include an action seeking the following: (1) tort damages, (2) punitive damages, (3) recovery of real property, (4) recovery of personal property, or (5) a prejudgment writ of attachment. The identification of a case as a rule 3.740 collections case on this form means that it will be exempt from the general time-for-service requirements and case management rules, unless a defendant files a responsive pleading. A rule 3.740 collections case will be subject to the requirements for service and obtaining a judgment in rule 3.740.

To Parties in Complex Cases. In complex cases only, parties must also use the Civil Case Cover Sheet to designate whether the case is complex. If a plaintiff believes the case is complex under rule 3.400 of the California Rules of Court, this must be indicated by completing the appropriate boxes in items 1 and 2. If a plaintiff designates a case as complex, the cover sheet must be served with the complaint on all parties to the action. A defendant may file and serve no later than the time of its first appearance a joinder in the plaintiff's designation, a counter-designation that the case is not complex, or, if the plaintiff has made no designation, a designation that the case is complex.
