29 Years of Wine... Women...

The WILD WOMEN of Winedale
a jones hope wooten comedy

September 5-8 & 13-15, 2019
Directed by Dennis Richards

The Wild sisters of Winedale, Virginia have supported one another through the early demise of two of their husbands, Fanny's hilariously inappropriate reaction to her 60th birthday, Willa turning to vodka and speed-knitting to cope with her job, and Johnnie Faye's search for a man - preferably with a house since hers is at the bottom of a Florida sinkhole.

Add a free-spirited, ailing aunt and loads of family keepsakes nobody wants until they find hilarious ways to be free of it all and proving

"It's never too late for a grand new adventure!"

-Jessie Jones, Nicholas Hope
& Jamie Wooten

29 Years Celebrated in

A Christmas Pudding
By David Birney
Stories and Songs of the Season

December 5-8 & 13-15, 2019
Directed by Dennis Richards

England's Christmas Pudding mixes 13 ingredients representing Christ and the 12 disciples and, like its fruitcake cousin, confirms the arrival of the Yuletide season.

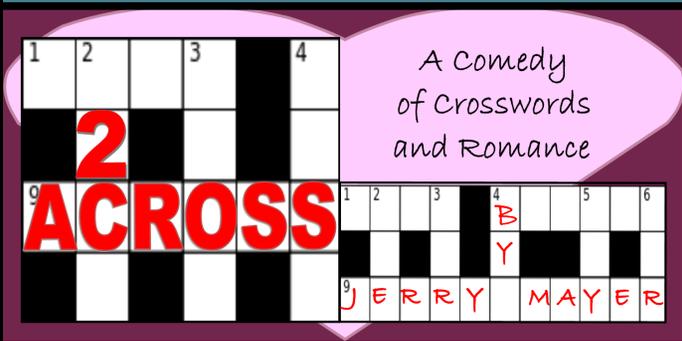

Our pudding is an evening of music, both old and new, stories and poems from Christmases past and present that will lighten your heart with humor and touch your soul with truth.

Adapted for the stage by television, Broadway and motion picture actor David Birney.

"...jump start your holiday spirit as we enter the gratitude season..."

-The Daily News Los Altos

29 Years of Romantic Comedy

March 19-22 & 27-29, 2020
 Directed by Krystal Donaldson

Two married commuters meet in a subway car. She's an organized, sensible, psychologist; he's a free spirited, unemployed ad exec. She's a crossword pro; he always quits.

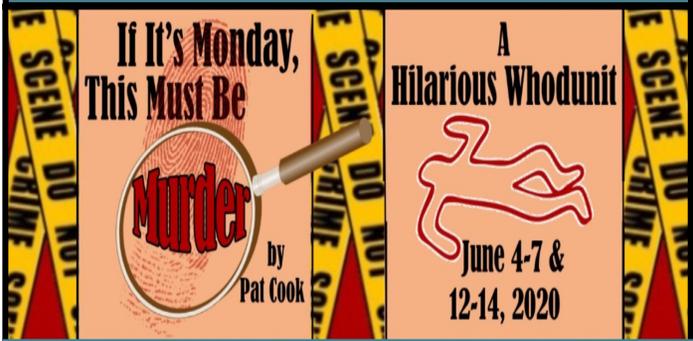

When he tosses his puzzle away, she quips, "Crosswords are a metaphor for life - those who finish, succeed, those who don't, fail."

On this trip filled with surprises, each will be changed for the better.

But will they ever meet again?

"Must see play of the year. Witty. Mesmerizing"
 -Beverly Hills Lookout

29 Years of Laughter

June 4-7 & 12-14, 2020
 Directed by Les Thomas

1940s-style gumshoe Harry Monday is posing as a golf-playing shrink at Shady Meadows Country Club. The club members are only slightly more sane than Harry and they're dropping like divots on the duffer's course.

His surly sergeant, a hard-hearted dame, a naïve supervisor, a prima donna club president, an astrological moonchild, a Wall Street ad man and someone claiming to be the twin of a missing club member are all dropping red herrings in their wake.

"A place where old polyester goes to die."
 - Harry Monday
