

July is ... refreshing swims, beach picnics, ice cream, fireworks and vacations!

We have been very busy finalizing the details for our special announcement ... keep scrolling to see what we've been working on!

"If I had my way, I'd remove January from the calendar altogether and have an extra July instead."

- Roald Dahl

July is the second January in a year, a second chance to make this year amazing! In addition to Canada Day, it is also the month when we celebrate National Mojito Day, Pecan Pie, Sugar Cookies, and Fried Chicken. So it seems like the perfect time to treat yourself to something delicious!

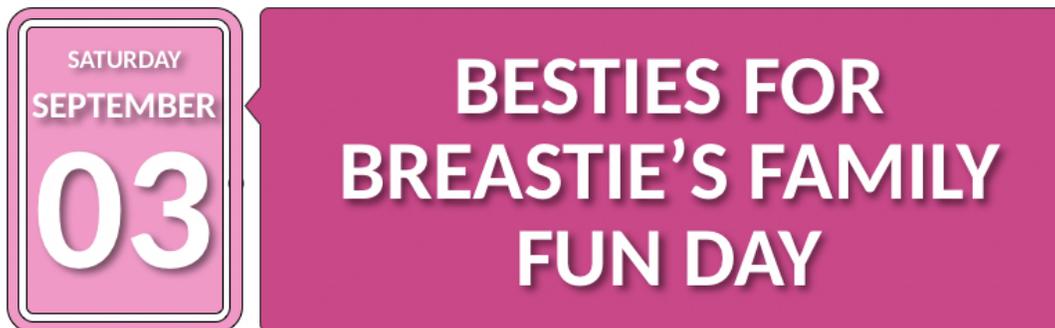

Summer is a great time to make meaningful connections or cultivate exciting new experiences. Need some inspiration to kick start your summer?

My Book of Scars

Jen published an Essay in Wildfire Magazine!

We are beyond excited to share that Jen published her first essay, My Book of Scars, in the June 2022 "BODY" issue of Wildfire Magazine!

"This scar tells a story of family and love.

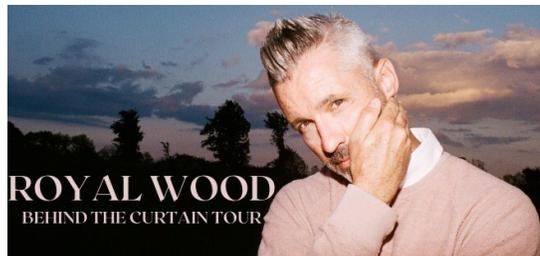

This scar tells a story that has been told a million times, and one time only. This scar marks a turning point in my life. It joins me to a sisterhood of women as old as time."
