

Principles of Ethics, Scientific Integrity, and Responsible Leadership: A One-Day Training Seminar for Economists

Professional Ethics Training (PET): Level I Certification (8 hours)

Washington, DC - Thursday February 25, 2016

At the Annual Conference of the Eastern Economic Association (EEA)

(The seminar is offered on the day before the conference sessions begin at the same hotel.)

Washington Marriott Wardman Park Hotel, Madison Room

2660 Woodley Rd NW, Washington, DC 20008

Organized by the Association for Integrity & Responsible Leadership in Economics and Associated Professions,* in collaboration with the Eastern Economic Association.

Never before in the history of economics in the United States has there been a training seminar of this magnitude on the extremely important topic of ethics, scientific integrity, and responsible leadership in economics.

Join us for this historic training experience, with presentations by world-renowned experts and leaders of some of the Nation's most important economic institutions, and in doing so, acquire a certification of expertise on the topic. Not only will the seminar provide a wide range of insightful presentations, but will engage the audience in provocative, interactive discussions. If there is any training in economics that you should take this year, then this is it!
