

Principles of Ethics, Scientific Integrity, and Responsible Leadership: A One-Day Training Seminar for Economists

Professional Ethics Training (PET): Level I Certification (8 hours)

*Organized by the Association for Integrity and Responsible Leadership in Economics

Sunday, January 8, 2017
Chicago Cultural Center
Claudia Cassidy Theater
 78 E Washington St.
 Chicago, IL 60602
 (Only four blocks from the AEA/ASSA meetings!)

There is no other training seminar of this magnitude on the extremely important topic of ethics, scientific integrity, and responsible leadership in economics. The same seminar was held in February 2016, in Washington D.C., the day before the annual meetings of the Eastern Economic Association. It was endorsed by the Eastern Economic Association and by the National Economists Club, and it received highly favorable reviews. It is now being offered to a wider audience in Chicago on the last day of the annual conference of the Allied Social Science Association (ASSA).

Join us for this historic training experience, with presentations by world-renowned experts and leaders of some of the most important economic institutions in the United States, and in doing so, acquire a certification of expertise on the topic. Not only will the seminar provide a wide range of insightful presentations, but will engage the audience in provocative, interactive discussions. And if you are already in Chicago for the ASSA meetings, then why miss it!

Lead Instructors:
George DeMartino and
Deirdre McCloskey
 (Authors of the Oxford Handbook of Professional Economic Ethics)

Directors of Economics Agencies:
Erica Groshen, Bureau of Labor Statistics
Keith Hall, Congressional Budget Office
Brian Moyer, Bureau of Economic Analysis

David Colander
 (Author: The Making of an Economist)

Benjamin Simon
 (Economics Staff Director, Department of the Interior)

W. Charles Sawyer
 (Author: Applied International Economics)

Registration is $95; for Students $50

Times: from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM

(Space is available for bags, for those headed right to the airport from the seminar.)

For Individual & Group Registrations
Go To <http://tinyurl.com/AIRLEAP2017>.

Featured Topics:

- Ethics Is More Fundamental Than Institutions (McCloskey)
- The Ethical Responsibilities of Economists as Researchers, Teachers, and Policy Advisers (DeMartino)
- How Government Agencies Promote Ethics, Scientific Integrity, and Responsible Leadership (Groshen, Hall, and Moyer)
- The Ethical Quandary of Positive Versus Normative Economics (Colander)
- Ensuring Scientific Integrity in Real-World Policy Analysis (Simon)
- An Insider's View of the Academic Job Market: What Job-Market Applicants Should Know (Sawyer)
- Ensuring the Responsible and Valid Use of Statistics in Economics (Ziliak)
- Ethics, Integrity, and Responsible Leadership in Financial Institutions (Anderson)
- Standing Tall and Upholding Scientific Integrity When Others Tell You, "You Just Don't Get It." (Payson)

Stephen Ziliak
 (Coauthor: The Cult of Statistical Significance)

Richard G. Anderson
 (Former VP, Fed. Reserve Bank of St. Louis)

Steven Payson
 (Author: Public Economics in the U.S.)

* The Association for Integrity and Responsible Leadership in Economics and Associated Professions (AIRLEAP®) is a nonprofit, 501(c)3 organization, incorporated in the State of Virginia since 2007. (See AIRLEAP.org for more information.)