President's Corner

March has gone by so fast; I am not sure it was ever here. The Chrome in the Dome and breakfast were the greatest. Thanks for whoever paid for my breakfast. Thanks to Russell Butler, meet organizer – our quad was right up-front center, and we had a lot of response to the four cars we sponsored. Thanks to Bob & Jane Hoff, Bill & Sandy Beery, Paul & Lona Engberson and Mark & Diane Schwarzenberger for getting their cars there and keeping them shiny all during the two days. We had a lot of flyers for our swap meet picked up at the show. Fortunately, the snow held off until Sunday.

See you at our chapter meeting on Thursday, April 7th at the Idaho Falls Activity Center at 7 p.m. Our spring cleanup at Market Lake is on Saturday, April 9th – a lot earlier than what we have done in the past. We will meet at the Outback Restaurant parking lot for coffee, etc. starting at 8 a.m. and leave for Market Lake at 9:00 a.m.

I am looking forward to April and the dust-off tour Doug and Rhonda Schwarzenberger have planned for us on Saturday, April 23. More details are in the newsletter (page 3).

Genghis Khan: Conquest and Culture

Washington Post historians called Genghis Khan the single most influential person of the last millennium – both for his conquest of history's largest land empire as well as the lasting cultural and scientific advances he spread. MOI invites you to view 13th-century weapons, armor, jewelry, and domestic goods that made it all tick.

We will caravan to Mac 'n Kelly's Pub & Grill (1560 Lindsay Blvd.) at 12:15 p.m.
for a no-host lunch ordering off the menu.

PLEASE RSVP (yes or no) to Rhonda
no later than Wednesday, April 20,
at 208.524.1337 (landline) and leave a message
OR dgnrnda@gmail.com.
I MUST have a head count for the museum and reservation for the lunch.
