Preparation & Participation

What is the best way to prepare for the Academic Bowl?

Consistent reading, studying all topic areas, and practicing teamwork are key. Teams are strongly encouraged to:

- Review all listed subject areas
- Attend information sessions
- Check the website weekly for updates, hints, and study tools

Should all team members study, or just certain students?

All students are responsible for all content areas. Every participant should be fully prepared, as any team member may be needed at any point in the competition.

Are teams required to attend the information sessions from February 10 through March 3?

Attendance is not mandatory, but it is highly encouraged. These sessions help teams understand game formats and expectations. A Zoom link will be provided to registered coaches and teams.

Team Competition vs. Black Wall Street

Is the Black Wall Street competition part of the Team Competition?

No. Black Wall Street (BWS) is a separate, individual competition and does not impact team scores.

Who is eligible to participate in the Black Wall Street competition?

Students whose teams do not advance to the Top 4 teams in the Team Competition may compete individually in Black Wall Street.

Can students participate in both competitions?

Yes. All students begin in the Team Competition. Eligible students may then compete in Black Wall Street if their team does not advance.

Competition Formats

What types of competition formats are used during the Academic Bowl?

The Academic Bowl uses three formats:

- Paper Test (closed book; pencils, exam and scratch paper provided)
- Kahoot! Games (interactive, timed digital trivia)
- Jeopardy-style Games (team-based buzzer format)

Is the Paper Test open or closed book?

The Paper Test is closed book. No electronic devices or outside materials are permitted.

Do answers in Jeopardy have to be in the form of a question?

No. Answers do not need to be phrased as a question for this competition.

Scoring & Advancement

How are teams selected to advance in the competition?

Team advancement is based on the combined (individual) player score from:

- Paper Test
- Kahoot! Games

The Top 4 teams advance to the Team Semi-Finals, and the Top 2 teams compete in Final Jeopardy.

How is the Academic Bowl champion determined?

The team winning the last round, “Championship game” will be crowned the 2026 Academic Bowl Champion (top score in round 5).
