Competition Rules & Entry Requirements

1. Gourd crafting must be the work of the artist. Be mindful that gourds should be original in design and not copied from a book or from a class project. Any gourd that is verbatim from a pattern or class is not eligible for judging. To be eligible for judging, gourds from patterns and classes must reflect the entrant's ability to make the design or technique their own. Copyrighted images will not be accepted.
2. GOURDS MUST PREDOMINATE IN ALL CATEGORIES. Judges may disqualify an entry if they feel that this is not the case. Where permitted, use of man-made and natural materials shall be limited to 25% of the gourd surface covered.
3. All cut and or open gourds must be cleaned or finished on the inside.
4. Stems are not required, but if they are present, must be cleaned and neat.
Exceptions __DIVISION I – DRIED, DIVISION II - MANIPULATED
5. Stands are allowed for gourds that do not sit up on their own. These stands must be simple and will not be considered in the judging. Any gourd that does not sit solidly will not be accepted. Rotating stands for highly decorated gourds will be allowed, but not turned on during judging.
6. Fractaled gourds are not permitted in competition.
7. Gourds previously entered the FGS Show may not be entered again unless the gourd was disqualified.
8. Photo documentation is required for verifying the process used on complicated entries.
9. Only 1 entry per Category.
10. No Business cards in the exhibition area.
11. The Florida Gourd Society will attempt to provide reasonable security for all entries but assumes no responsibility for damage to or theft of an entry.
12. Competitors must submit an Entry Form (pages 12-13)
13. Each gourd must have an entry tag attached to it (page 14).
 - A. You must mark your tags “yes” or “no” allowing judges/clerks to move your gourd from the category you chose if it does not fit the criteria for that category. Gourds left in wrong categories will be disqualified from judging.
 - B. You must mark the tag “yes” or “no” if you wish to sell your entry at the end of the festival. Indicate the sale price.
14. Permissions: A permission form is on page 1 of the Entry Form. Artists must sign this form to permit use of photos of their entries for publicity. They have the option of permitting use of a personal photo for publicity.

Each DIVISION and CATEGORY has specific requirements.
