Mission Statement

Our mission is to enable veterans and their families to lead fulfilling, productive lives. We express our profound gratitude for their service and sacrifices by offering maximum support.

Our goal is to provide top-notch housing for the homeless veterans and those at risk of becoming homeless. We recognize the challenges they encounter and aim to help them overcome these hurdles. Our Veterans Home welcomes not only members of the United States Armed Forces; we are aware that veterans of the following face many issues and challenges;

Air Force - Transitioning from the Air Force to civilian life can be a difficult journey for many veterans.

Army - These veterans may require specialized assistance because they face unique challenges and needs after their military service.

Coast Guard – These Veterans face the risk of homelessness due to challenges like finding affordable housing, securing stable employment, or managing service-related disabilities.

Marines - They often face significant difficulties when transitioning back to civilian life, including the risks of homelessness, unstable employment, securing affordable housing, or managing service-related disabilities.

Navy - veterans often struggle with challenges like finding stable jobs, securing affordable housing, and managing service-related disabilities, which can increase their risk of homelessness.
