Preparing Your Personal Testimony

Sharing how you came to know God personally is one of the most powerful ways you can help friends grasp how much God loves us. If someone asked you to share today, you might find it challenging to explain how you came to believe in God, or what he means to you.

If so, that's okay! Try setting aside just 15 minutes to capture some key milestones in your journey with Christ below, and use this as a guide for sharing your story with others, whether in snippets over time or all at once over coffee. Remember, it's your story, so the more authentic and personal it is, the better.

BEFORE

Before you met Christ, what were some of your needs, what was lacking, or what was missing in your life?

What methods for improving your life did you try that didn't work?

HOW

What were the circumstances that caused you to consider following Jesus?

What has become your favorite Bible verse and why?

Share about how you trusted Christ and give a brief explanation of the gospel. John 3:16 is a great verse to use.

AFTER

Give an example of how God has met your needs—either physical or emotional—since you accepted Jesus.

Share about what part of your relationship with God you're most grateful for today.

"Always be prepared to give an answer to everyone who asks you to give the reason for the hope that you have." (1 Peter 3:15, NIV)
