

There's No Fool Like A Fishin' Fool

Fishin' Lines

April 2019

The Oswegoland Fishin' Fools is a multi-species fishing club. We meet the 1st Monday of each month at 7 PM in the Allied First Bank Building, 3201 Orchard Road, Oswego Visit us on the Web at: <http://www.fishinfools.org>

OSWEGOLAND FISHIN' FOOLS

As Dorothy said to her Aunt Em, "There's no place like home". After having one meeting cancelled and another relocated, we're finally back in our more familiar digs; Allied 1st Bank on Orchard Rd, in Oswego.

And to welcome everyone back, we've scheduled an interesting speaker to speak about fishing Braidwood lake.

President's Ponderings

Jim says he promises while wandering, to do a little pondering and maybe when he's back again, he'll share the wisdom he's obtained.

--- Mike

Carter Wijangco, of Naperville, IL is getting a lot of attention since winning the 2018 Bassmaster's Junior Classic. A student at Metea Valley High School, he isn't wasting his free time on trivial pursuits, he's in training to join the ranks of the Bass fishing elite.

treatment and recovery. He expects to be at the April 1st meeting and looks forward to seeing everyone there.

May 6 Speaker talks Big Green Lake

On Monday, May 6, the Oswegoland Fishin' Fools will welcome Mike Norris, pro fishing guide and outdoor writer, to talk about fishing on Wisconsin's Big Green Lake. Mr. Norris has competed in numerous fishing tournaments and is a consistent producer of quality fish. His secret? He finds the fish! Come find out how.

Non-members will be welcome with a donation of $10 (which will be credited to annual dues if that person joins our club within the calendar year.)
