You Make Me Feel

Keira & Mark

[Verse 1]

Deep in the night, when I'm alone
My heart starts to burn, cause I feel for you
I've been away too long from my love
I leave it up to you, to understand

I've got this feeling, deep in my mind
Come back and love me, just one more time
On the ground of an ocean, we buried our love far away
My heart's still bleeding, won't you come back and stay

[Chorus 1]

But I can't understand
Why there's salt in my eyes
And I can't understand
Why your heart's in disguise

For I still need you
And I want you to come back again
You make me feel never again

[Verse 2]

I can't find the answer from a look in your eyes
And my heart's still crying, don't tell me your love's a lie
You're still the one who can set me in a state of trance
Why don't we give us a second chance?

[Chorus 2]

But I can't understand why you laugh, though you cry
And I can't understand why I don't say goodbye

For I still need you
And I want you to come back again
You make me feel never again

[Guitar Solo]

[Hook]
For I still need you
And I want you to come back again
You make me feel never again

[Hook]
For I still need you
And I want you to come back again
You make me feel never again

[Hook]
For I still need you
And I want you to come back again
You make me feel never again

Words From Clint

*"I fully anticipated this,
I'm not worried,
nor frightened,
I don't want any sympathy,
or tears,
I'm not crying,
I'm still laughing,
& will continue my life as normal 😊
My aftershow party is just beginning 🥳"*

Committal

Toast

As the encore ensues and the crowd still engaging
The performance you gave, full of thrill, just amazing
All your fans brought your merch and forever remain
As loyal as you are and will be back again,
To play your back catalogue, your life told in song
That echoes in eternity, right where you belong
When the stadium closes and the lights fade to black
We'll all see you backstage once you've played your last track,
Chanting let's have a drink and get fucked up once more
Screaming this one's for Clint on his big final tour.
