

THE OPENING SENTENCES & WELCOME

By Reverend Andrew Manson-Brailsford

WELCOME AND INTRODUCTION

By Paul Cousens

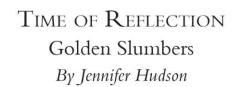

THE EULOGY

'SHE IS GONE' Read By Collin Day

You can shed tears that she is gone, or you can smile because she has lived.
You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left.
Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love that you shared.
You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.
You can remember her and only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.
You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, or you can do what she would want:
Smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

A POEM FOR KRISSIE

By Paul Cousens

The Music Fades, yet still it plays,
A Melody that time won't erase.
Your voice, a song, so pure, so bright,
Still echoes softly in the night.
Though silence fills the space you leave,
Your love remains for hearts that grieve.
Natalie feels you in the air,
In whispered tunes and gentle prayer.
No final note, no last goodbye,
Just harmonies that touch the sky.
Your song goes on, forever freeA gift of love, eternally.
